The Women' Institute held a euchre party last Monday evening when ten tables were in operation. A vote of thanks was tendered Miss E. Mather at the close in whose house the party was held. The first prize was a piece of bacon won by Mr. Jas. Oliver who jokingly remarked "he brought home the bacon." Mrs. J. P. McMillan was best in the ladies. The consolation prizes were won by Miss M. Nichol and her cousin, Donald Nichol. If we had been present the latter would not have got it. At the close an appetizing lunch was served by the hostess and her assistants.

The hockey boys have so far been unable to make ice on the local rink as it seems every time a sheet of ice is formed a storm comes and ruins it which is very discouraging.

Porteous, Mrs. Martin and Miss Dinsmore. Mrs. C. Martin told a children's story entitled "Jacob's Dream.". Miss Mabel Betts was at the organ and an anthem "Does Jesus Care?" was well rendered by the Y.P.U. choir of sixteen voices. A special selection "I Surrender All" by Messrs. A knght of the road better known as a transient covers a goodly distance in the course of a week, but a farmer who plows his fertile acres covers a lot more. The story is that a transient was offered a job to plow a fifteen acre field near Tiverton for fifteen dollars. He seems to have been good at figures and he had it worked out that to plow that field he would have to cover one hundred and sixty miles. He decided he would sooner do the walking on the provincial highway system and travelled on.

KIMBERLEY

Our most sincere sympathy is extended to Mrs. W. H. Thurston and family in the death of husband and father. Our acquaintance with Mr. Thurston has extended over a period of more than fifty years, and we know his life has been one of activity for good in whatsoever place he has been found before his entrance into any public life. When a boy among his associates of the Valley he was known as a boy of truth and uprightness. Coming from the family of his parents it would be difficult to be otherwise.

Our sympathy is also extended to Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Weber in the sudden death of their infant son, aged 6 months.

The young people were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. McAuslan on Tuesday night.

The recent storm has closed the road over the hills from Mr. N. E. Burritt's to Eugenia for cars. The Valley Road is still open and truckers are drawing logs and stock.

Born — on Saturday, Feb. 4, 1939, to Mr. and Mrs. Byrel McConnel, the gift of a son.

We are sorry to know that Mr. Cecil Mundle is seriously with pneumonia. He was taken to Owen Sound hospital during the week.

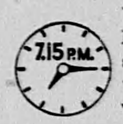
"Why don't I call them up?"



Yes, why not? Haven't you often started a letter when your thoughts went a'wandering —made you want to talk rather than write . . . and, then, within a minute, you heard "Dear Mary"—her own familiar voice.

"And here's Johnny!"

Watch a child's face when he hears Daddy's voice. You wish Daddy himself could see it—then he'd really know how much it means to his family, when he calls from a distant town.

"...now I call them every evening!"

Somehow you are attracted to a man who says this. In those few words he tells you much about himself and his family. He sets an example by "Going home" every evening—

by LONG DISTANCE

By using low Night Rates (which apply every evening after 7 and all day Sunday), and placing "Anyone" calls—you can talk a long way for very little.
