NEWS AND EVENTS OF SCHOOL LIFE AT VANDELEUR

The boys of S. S. No. 11 have been busy weaving. They are not Indians or Egyptians but have made a fine job of weaving the seat and back of a chair. They also have been busy remodelling a rocking chair which was in need of repair.

The girls have been busy too papering our new kitchen which we erected in the corner of the school room, also they have been wrapping frames with raffia for small pictures.

There has not been many sports as our ice has been in very poor condition. The only sport now until ball time is our snowball battles which we all enjoy.

FRED BOLAND, Editor.

REAL INVESTMENT

$2,200 invested returns $900 in rents per year. Two stores and two apartments. Taxes around $175. 20 per cent interest on your money invested. Closing estate. Apply by letter to Box 10 at this office.

Local and Personal

Miss Lillian Magee left on Monday to take a position in Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Best spent the week end in town.

Mr. C. J. Bellamy and son, Bob, spent Friday and Saturday in Toronto.

Mr. Norval Cox has opened the Canadian Oil Service Station at the south end of town for business.

Order your Easter lilies, flowering plants and cut flowers from W. A. Hawken, 'phone 17.

Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Cobb of Toronto are visiting Rev. and Mrs. George R. Service.

Mrs. J. G. Coleridge of Kingsville is visiting this week with her father, Mr. D. McTavish.

Mr. Ted Fawcett has returned to his home at Wodehouse after spending the winter months with his brother, Harold.

We would be pleased if our readers who are in arrears for The Advance would send in part, anyway, at the present time. Look at your label now.

Mrs. R. J. Blackburn of Toronto and Mr. and Mrs. C. Rawlings of Windsor visited Sunday with Mr and Mrs. T. J. Fisher.

Miss Roberta Leavell returned to Toronto Monday after spending the past week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Leavell.

An open season for muskrats in Grey and Bruce counties has been announced by the Department of Game and Fisheries from April 1st to 25th, inclusive.

Six inches of snow last Thursday gave us another taste of winter and since then the weather has been most-freezing with snow flurries. Some farmers have tapped, but the run has been very light.

Mr. Bob Bellamy received information last week that he came first with eighty-eight per cent in the five-month horticultural course he took at the Ontario Agricultural College. We wish Bob all success in his work.

The special Holy Week services being held this Wednesday night in St. John's United Church will commence at 7.30 p.m. instead of 8.00 as previously announced on account of the High School commencement exercises being held the same night.

Mr. Wm. Meads of the O.D.R. brought an extra large Leghorn pullet egg to The Advance Office on Tuesday. It measured six and a half by eight and an eighth inches. It is the largest yet received and will almost make a breakfast itself for the editor.

There is a nail keg in this office filled with dross, which weighs in the neighborhood of three hundred pounds. P.C. Cooke and Mr. Harry Paton are the only ones to lift the keg the height of their waist out of a large number who have attempted the feat. You big, strong men are welcome to try your back on this little keg.

What could equal a visit to that old and long familiar sugar camp on one of these beautiful spring mornings? Or perhaps you would like a ramble over the hills trying for a shot at that sleepy groundhog which is just emerging from its winter's den on Pickle's Hill. So if you are planning on visiting the old home town for a week-end, a week, or even a two week vacation call Harold Best, HO. 5064, for information. Reasonable rates can be arranged as low as $1.25 a day for board and room. Make reservations early for Easter week-end.

Grand Valley is C.O.H.L. Juvenile Champion

Grand Valley is the winner of the Lang Trophy symbolic of the Central Ontario Juvenile League. On tuesday night they eked out a 3-2 overtime win over Shelburne in a thrilling session that saw three goals scored in the twenty minute overtime period. The teams had previously battled to a 3.3 tie in Grand Valley Monday nighta ndt he second game was played in Shelburne last night with total goals to count on the round. In last night's game Shelburne scored in the first period only to have Grand Valley tie it up midway through the last canto. In the overtime Sheblurne scored one goal to the visitors' two.
