Globe veterans to teach kids theatre skills in fall workshop

Calling all young aspiring actors to a fun musical theatre workshop. Starting on Saturday, Sept. 28 and running until Nov. 30 (except October 12) at the Old Armoury in the Georgetown Fairgrounds, children 8 to 13 will be learning singing, acting and dancing skills used in musical theatre.

The program runs 1-4 p.m. on Saturdays and will be led by two seasoned Georgetown Globe Productions' members, Melissa Fischer and Jen Marshall.

A graduate of the Randolph Academy for the Performing Arts and a fixture at Georgetown Globe Productions for over a decade, Fischer brings years of experience to this season's workshops. A lady of many hats—performer, producer, stage manager, board member—she looks forward to sharing her knowledge and skills with Globe's youth. Her experience as a figure skating coach combined with her formal theatre training makes her a great match with Globe's up and coming performers.

Marshall has been with Georgetown Globe Productions since she was 12 years old, having first performed in 1994's The Music Man. Since then she has been in over 20 productions, her favourite being Crazy for You as she loves to tap dance. Over the years, Marshall has produced, created props, and most recently, is choreographing this fall's production of All Shook Up. Marshall is a huge supporter of the workshop series as it encompasses two of her greatest passions: musical theatre and teaching children.

The workshop is a great opportunity to expose children to the variety of skills involved in musical theatre. According to a former participant, Miriam, it helped her connect with Globe's community and encouraged her to audition and be a part of two Georgetown Globe Youth productions.

In addition to the workshop series, on November 23 the children will get the opportunity to see Georgetown Globe Productions fall production of All Shook Up. On November 30 the children will have a chance to showcase their talent to parents and friends.

The cost of the camp is $180. Please contact Leann Playter at leannplayter@hotmail.com for more information and to sign up.

Globe is looking for a few good men

Georgetown Globe Productions is looking for a few good men, aged 25-40, to round out the ensemble of their fall production, All Shook Up at the John Elliott Theatre in Georgetown from Nov 22-30.

Loosely based on Twelfth Night and featuring the music of Elvis Presley, All Shook Up is a hilarious, spirited show about a guitar playing, motorcycle riding 'roustabout' who brings life and music to a downtrodden "Middle American" town.

If you wish to audition please contact Lori Girvan at lori.girvan@cogeco.ca. You will be asked to sing, and be taught a quick dance. A pianist will be provided.

Klassen to perform in Acton on Sept. 22

Listen to harpist and speaker Eduard Klassen at Knox Presbyterian Church in Acton, on Sunday, Sept. 22 at 2 p.m.

Klassen is a Paraguayan folk harpist, now living in Canada, who has presented over 3,500 music concerts in 23 countries since making a personal commitment to Christ.

A typical concert presentation by Eduard Klassen includes a variety of Christian harp music from South America, North America and Europe, interspersed with personal testimony and stories of God's work in his life, from boyhood in the wilderness of Paraguay to the present. His natural sense of humour helps him to develop an excellent rapport with audiences wherever he goes.

Free will offering. For more information call 519-853-2360, 519-856-9177 or 519-853-1639.

Rainbows is a peer support group for children ages 5 to 12 coping with difficult family changes such as divorce, abandonment or the death of a parent or sibling.

This 12 week program is facilitated by trained volunteers and is free of charge.

Sessions begin
Monday, September 23.

For more information or to register, contact Amy at 519-929-9148.
