

Cultural Centre returns to full schedule

A full slate of programs is planned at the Halton Hills Cultural Centre this month to coincide with the national Culture Days. "It's fantastic to see that the Cultural Centre is so active, and that it offers so many alternatives for the community," says Mayor Rick Bonnette.

In the Sisnett Lobby, the art exhibition, Variations on a Theme opened Sept. 11, and features the work of local artists who have been inspired by music.

In the Helson Gallery, the art exhibition, The Art of Collecting, opens Sept. 12. Complementing this exhibit, will be a Gallery lecture, The Art of Collecting, Sept. 23, 7 p.m. Join Gallery Curator Judy Daley for a tour that highlights local collectors and selections from the Helson Collection.

The popular Music at One Concert Series returns to the Helson Gallery with the George Grosman Trio on Sept 24 at 1 p.m.

The Cultural Master Plan Launch will be held Sept. 28 at 2 p.m. The Cultural Supervisor and the Project Lead from the Cultural Master Plan project will be on site in the Gallery to explain the plan.

On Sept. 29 enjoy A Conversation with Fred Helson, 2 p.m. Learn first-hand about his collection and his passion for art.

In partnership with the Hispanic Cultural Forum, the John Elliott Theatre presents Hispanic Movie Series: The Secret in their Eyes, an Oscar-winning film from Argentina on Sept. 24 at 7:30 p.m. Tickets $5.

SANDRA SHAMAS

On Sept. 25, the TIFF Film Circuit Series kicks off at 7:30 p.m. with Stories We Tell, directed by Canadian actress and director Sarah Polley. This event will include a pre-show reception, opening remarks, and a post-show Q and A. Proceeds will support the Perchance to Dream theatre and library fundraising campaign. Tickets $20.

On Sept. 26, 7 p.m. One Book, One Community book club kicks off with award-winning author, Dr. Vincent Lam, who reads from The Headmaster's Wager, this year's One Book, One Halton Hills title. Copies of the book will be on sale and available for signing. Tickets $2 at the library.

On Sept. 27, Dale Wood and Friends Concert will be held at 8 p.m. Proceeds will go to the Perchance to Dream campaign. Tickets $25.

And completing the month will be Stand-Up with Sandra Shamas at 8 p.m. The comedy star brings her satiric stand-up act for a special engagement to the JET, her hometown stage, for one night only. Proceeds will go to the Perchance to Dream campaign. Tickets $50.
