New Roller Skating Rink Being Built at Wasaga Beach

Mr. J. I. McLean, proprietor of the famous Dardanella dance pavilion at Wasaga Beach, is planning to erect a fine new roller skating rink just to the rear of the pavilion this spring. The new rink will be sixty feet by one hundred and fifty feet and will incorporate all the latest and newest features used in this now very popular pastime. This new rink will be one of the largest additions to the amusement list at Wasaga in recent years and is only indicative of the new spirit of optimism and confidence that is generally felt at Wasaga.
