Mr. and Mrs. Will Campbell of Toronto spent the week end with friends in this vicintiy.

MAXWELL

Sunday evening the members of the Canadian Legion and their wives from the Flesherton vicinity attended the United church, which was filled for the occasion. Rev. Stanley Elilott, a member of the Legion, delivered an appropriate sermon to the large congregation.

Mrs. Ed. Binnington is still very ill, and we hope that she will soon improve in health.

Mrs. Fred Field of Toronto is visiting her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Binnington.

Visitors at the home of Ed. Binnington on Sunday were: Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Betts of Flesherton, Mrs. John Robertson and Miss Ruby Roberton and friend, Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Priestley and Mrs. Louis Kerton, all of Maxwell, and Mrs. Chester Cameron of Owen Sound.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Ross visited at Cheltenham and Georgetown last week.

Saturday afternoon fire broke out in Mr. Ed. Seeley's driving shed and destroyed the building. Help soon arrived and prevented the spread of the fire to the other buildings. Cause of the fire is unknown.

Mr. Fred Ross took a business trip to Toronto this week.

ROCK MILLS

The mill commenced work on Wednesday of last week. Mr. Cameron Smellie of Ceylon is back again as sawyer.

A banquet is being held on Friday evening, May 12th, under the auspices of the Y.P.S. of St. Columba church. A good time is promised.

We are pleased to hear of the satisfactory improvement in the health of Miss Edna Harrison of N. E. Egremont.

We were pleased to meet with one of our old choristers at church Sunday and who favored us with a solo in her fine voice, as of yore. This was Mrs. Norval Brawley (nee Louise Watson) who had spent a week with her mother, sister Martha, and brother, W. G. Watsson.

Rev. A. R. Muir exchanged pulpits on Sunday with Rev. Galbraith of Woodford. Rev. Galbraith preached in Gaelic at the evening serice, which was hailed as "Shanacathie" by those who heard. Our early education being sadly neglected we would be hopelessly at sea, so we snoozed at home between times, which, perhaps, would do us more good physically! "Hangiel Gaelic."

Mr. F. Muir of Barrie spent the week end at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Sutherland.

Master Jim Thurston of Flesherton spent the week end with his friend, Ross McConkey.

FEVERSHAM

VICTORIA CORNERS

Mr. and Mrs. Russel Linton, accompanied by Mrs. Albert Reid, were in Toronto a few days last week.

The Y.P.S., which was discontinued for a time on account of bad roads, held their meeting last week at the home of the president, Mr. and Mrs. John Talbot.

Charles and Ted Moore, assisted by Jim Gallagher and Earl Talbot, are preparing their crusher for operation in a pit just out of Markdale.

Miss Lucas of Markdale, music teacher for schools, held a musical festival on Friday evening in the town hall at Flesherton, when the pupils of each school took part in costume, showing the parents what progress they are making.

Last Friday was Arbor Day at the school. We wonder if there are any of us too old just to know what a thrill that gives to those attending school. After the usual routine work our teacher, Mr. Talbot, took the pupils to Springhill for a ball game. Our school brouht home the laurels, the score being 32-8.

Send the Advance to a friend.

VANDELEUR

The May meeting of the Woman's Association was held at the home of Mrs. Lundy Johnson. Due to the illness of the president, Mrs. F. R. Boland, the 2nd Vice President, Mrs. Fitzsimmons, took the chair. The roll was answered by about fifteen members with a reason "What I like best about the spring." Topic: "Thoughts of Spring," was given by Mrs. Howard Graham. Mrs. Will Johnson sang a solo and prayer was given by Mrs. S. E. Annis. Mrs. Angus Bowles conducted the contest, the award being won by Mrs. Annis. A social hour followed with luncheon served by the hostess, Mrs. Lundy Johnson, assisted by Mrs. Geo. Buchanan and Mrs. W. B. Johnson.
