Vol. 58; No. 51 FLESHERTON, WEDNESDAY, MAY 17, 1939 W. H. THURSTON & SON, Proprietors

Wm. Holley Dies

The funeral of the late Wm. H. Holley, who passed away at his home in Holland township on Sunday, May 7, was held on Tuesday afternoon of last week, interment being made in Markdale cemetery. The late Mr. Holley had been in failing health for some time, suffering from paralysis of the nerves, finally developing into pneumonia. He was born 67 years ago on the east backline, Artemesia, and was a son of the late Jacob Holley.

The late Mr. Holley was united in marriage twenty-eight years ago to Martha Jane Thompson of Flesherton, who survives, together with seven children: Carl of Sault Ste. Marie; Nora, Markdale; Chester, Ruth, Ruby, Delbert and Dean, all at home. He also leaves two brothers, Alex. of Sault Ste. Marie and Jacob of Markdale. Three sisters predeceased him some years ago.

Lake—Shrubb

A quiet wedding took place in Feversham at the Gospel Workers' parsonage on Saturday, May 6th, when Marjorie Shrubb of Singhampton was united in marriage to Mr. Leslie Lake of Honeywood, Rev. F. Dean officiating.

The bride was attended by Miss Kathleen Hawkins of Honeywood. Mr. Ivan Brown of Orangeville acted as groomsman.

On their return from a short motor trip, a reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Morrison at Singhampton.

Prince Arthur Officers

The annual election of officers of Prince Arthur Lodge No. 33, A.F.& A.M, G.R.C., was held at the regular meeting on Friday evening, when Albert Blackburn was elected as the Master for the coming year. The new memorial service was held for the first time, in memory of the 54 members in good standing who have died since the Lodge was instituted. Following are the officers elected:

W.M.—Albert Blackburn.
S.W.—Herbert Corbett.
J.W.—H. L. Eubank.
Chaplain—Peter Muir.
Secretary—C. J. Bellamy.
Treasurer—F. H. W. Hickling.
Tyler—Lloyd Wauchope.

Card of Thanks

I wish to express my deep appreciation to the friends and neighbors for their kindness during the sickness and bereavement in the loss of my brother, Robert James Alister.

—Ella Alister.

Musical Festival

The Grey County Musical Festival opened at Owen Sound on Tuesday afternoon, the events taking place in Westside church. The entry list this year surpasses any of former years. Quite a number of pupils from the Flesherton and surrounding schools will take part in the various classes, the school choruses being held on Friday.

Junior Band Improves

The junior band is making very good progress under the leadership of Mr. C. Trickey, who has taken over the band from Mr. H. Rowbottom, the organizer. Last Wednesday evening six members of the Tara band were brought over and assisted the local players in their practice. At present the band membership has reached eleven and several others intend to join at once. There are still openings for several players, boys or girls, and the parents are urged to get into touch with Mr. Trickey, so that he can prepare them for the opening concert to be given in about five weeks. The parents of the players and others are urged to attend band practices Monday, Wednesday and Friday at 4.15 and see for themselves how the band is conducted and the musical talent brought out in the junior players in so short a time. The formation of this band is a wonderful opportunity for the young people to become proficient in a musical instrument at a small cost and, in fact, the training received now may become invaluable to them in later years.

Izard—Sayers

A quiet, but pretty, wedding was solemnized at the Baptist parsonage at Collingwood on Saturday, May 6, wehn Iva Loreen, daughter of Mr. and when Iva Loreen Sayers of Feversham was united in marriage to Mr. Willie J. Izard, only son of Mr. and Mrs. John Izard of Feversham, Rev. H. Yeastman conducting the ceremony.

The bride looked charming in a lovely gown of Queen's blue sheer chiffon with silver accessories. Her sister, Miss Veletta Sayers, acted as bridesmaid, wearing coral chiffon while Mr. Stewart Hindle of Clarksbury was groomsman. After the ceremony the bridal party motored to the home of the bride's parents, where a reception was held. Only immedaite relatives of the contracting parties were present at the ceremony. A sumptuous wedding repast was served in the dining room, which was prettily decorated with pink and white streamers and white bells, and a four-storey wedding cake centred the table.

The bride and groom left for a short motor trip, the bride travelling in her wedding dress with beige coat and matching accessories. The young couple have the best wishes of a host of friends for a long and happy wedded life together. They will reside with the groom's parents on the 12th line, Osprey.

Card of Thanks

Mrs. Bert Graham wishes to express her gratitude and appreciation for the many expressions of sympathy tendered in her recent bereavement, and also for the many beautiful floral offerings presented from friends.

DIED

ALISTER—In Collingwood on Friday, May 12th, 1939, Robert James Alister, aged 88 years. The funeral service will be held from his late residence Fifth Street, on Sunday afternoon, May 14th; service in Maxwell United Church. Interment in Maxwell cemetery.

John E. Wright Died At Wingham

John Edmund Wright, a native of Artemesia township, passed away at his home near Wingham on Thursday morning of last week, May 11th, in his 63rd year. He had been in failing health for the past five years, heart trouble being the immediate cause of his death.

The funeral took place on Saturday afternoon, when interment was made in the family plot in Flesherton cemetery. Rev. E. M. Loney, Bapist minister of Wingham, conducted the service at his late late residence and also conducted the commitment service at the cemetery.

The pallbearers were members of the Orange Association: Messrs. Geo. Cairns, Geo. Snell, F. W. Duncan, C. J. Bellamy, C. R. Chapple and A. E. Bellamy.

The late Mr. Wright was born on the west backline, Artemesia, and was a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Wright, pioneers of this district. He was married 36 years ago last November to Miss Florence Truen of Orangeville, who survives, together wtih two sons and one daughter, Wm. C. Wright of Galt, Harold E. Wright of Orillia and bernice (Mrs. Bridges) at home. He leaves one brother, Robert Wright, of Edmonton, the only surviving member of a family of ten. The late W. L. Wright and Fred Wright of Flesherton also were brothers. Deceased farmed on the property now owned by Mr. George Cairns and in 1914 moved to Wingham, where he had since resided. He was a member of Wingham Baptist church and of the L.O.L.

Service Station Opened

The Flesherton B.-A. service station was officially opened on Monday morning, under the management of Harold Best. Flesherton's industrious cattle buyer, Mr. Gordon Stuart, was the first customer making a purchase, arriving at 4.30 a.m., and received a free car wash and polish. Douglas Morgan, on his way to Flesherton's well-stocked speckled trout streams, was second at 5 o'clock and received a free car wash and complete lubrication. Shortly afterward came Wallace Hamilton, trucker, and received a free truck lubrication, and fourth prize was a tie with Rev. Servce and Geo. Armstrong.

IN MEMORIAM

WILLIAMS—In loving memory of our dear wife and mother, Mrs. Jacob Williams, who passed away May 19, 1933.

Never an hour but I'm learning
How precious you were and true,
And how much of God went into making
The heart of a mother like you.

—Ever remembered by her husband and daughter, Allie, Neah and Hilda.

IN MEMORIAM

BEECROFT—In loving memory of our dear mother, Mrs. Mary Beecroft, who passed away May 19th, 1938

Loving and kind in all her ways,
Upright and just to the end of her days,
Sincere and true in her heart and mind,
Beautiful memories she left behind.

—Ever remembered by the family.

Line Route For King

The Grey and Simcoe Foresters will be one of the three regiments called for duty in Toronto on the occasion of the Royal visit on May 22nd. The other two rural regiments slated for lining the streets are the Lorne Scots and the Ontario Regiment (Tank).

The Foresters expect to be about 300 strong for their trip to Toronto and the local platoon, part of "A" Company, will entrain Sunday evening for Barrie, where a specal train will be made up to take them to Toronto. They will take up a position on University Avenue, opposite the armories by 7.50 a.m., and in the afternoon will do guard duty on Spadina Ave. The Foresters have been in training for several weeks and should make a good impression while away from home. It is a great honor for the regiment to participate in the Royal procession. Other companies of the Foresters are located in Meaford, Barrie, Orillia and Penetang. The return trip will be made Monday night, with the troops arriving home in the early hours of the morning.

Lucky Winners in Draw

Mrs. Gordon Long of Toronto Line North was the lucky winner of first prize in the draw conducted in Flesherton on Wednesday evening of last week. She was presented with $5.00. Second prize went to Mr. Geo. Swanton, also of the same line, and he received $2.00, while Mrs. John W. Ottewell, Cecil McKechnie and Douglas Morgan each won a $1.00 prize. Besides the prize given by the business men from the community chest Mrs. Swanton and Mrs. Ottewell received twice the price of their cream check from the Flesherton creamery, having delivered a can of cream to the creamery that day which qualified them for the extra prize. See the creamery advertisement in this issue to find how much they received

Another draw is being made this Wednesday night so be sure and be in town, you may be the lucky winner. The draw will be made at 9.30 p.m. in front of F. W. Duncan's store. Each time you make a 25 cent purchase in the stores ask for the coupon.

BLACK BEAR SEEN

A black bear was observed last week by Messrs. Jack Beatty of town and Lawrence McFadden of Glenelg as they were working at the Grey County forest west of Priceville. The bear bounded off into the bush when it saw the men. It is said that the bear was not a large one. We have not heard of any other persons having seen the animal.

George Wilson Dies

The death of a well know resident of the Maxwell district, in the person of George Wilson, ocurred on Saturday. Mr. Wilson was 74 years of age and was a native of Osprey township. Besides his widow, he is survived by one son and four daughters, Mrs. Harry Stewart, Maple Valley; Mrs. Fred Irwin, Flesherton; Mrs. Stanley Blackburn, Collingwood; Mrs. Luther Love, Portlaw, and Arthur, at home.

The funeral was held on Monday, interment being made in the Maxwell cemetery.

Card of Thanks

I wish to thank the many kind friends who sent me letters, flowers and treats during my long illness, also the girls in my Sunday School class and the Ladies' Aid of Rock Mills church for fruit and flowers.

Mrs. Leonard Latimer Died at Eugenia Home

(by our Eugenia Correspondent)

Our commuinty was saddened when the news flashed around that Mrs. J. Leonard Latimer has passed on to Life Eternal. Her passing was sincerely regretted. Her health had been impaired for the past five years, but she did not take seriously ill until about a month ago, her condition gradually becoming worse until the end came on Friday morning, May 12. She was tenderly cared for by her husband and daughter who, with other assistance and the doctor's aid, did all they could to restore her to health again. She bore her suffering with real grace, with such Christian fortitude that assures us that she followed the teachings of our Master, who said "Deny thyself, take up thy cross and follow me." The deceased was a woman of a gentle and loving disposition and had won many friends. She was highly regarded by all who knew her.

The late Mrs. Latimer, whose maiden name was Miss Mary Johnston, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Johnston, was born in St. Vincent township, near Meaford. She reached her 72nd birthday on Easter Sunday, April 9th. On May 26th, 1892, she was united in marriage to Mr. Leonard Latimer and resided for twenty years on the farm now owned by Mr. John Campbell, north of the village. From the farm they moved to the village, where they happily resided for the past 27 years. Early in life the deceased became a member of the Disciple's church, Meaford, then after marriage attended the Methodist church until union, when she became a member of the United Church. She was an ardent church worker, especially in the Sunday School, whre she taught the Bible class.

The funeral was held on Sunday, May 14th, (Mothers' Day). After a short service at her late residence the remains were taken to the church, which was filled to capacity with sympathizing and sorrowing friends and neighbors. Rev. Stanley Elliott officiated and took his message from the Act 9: 36-39 — "the life of Dorcas." He spoke of the fine Christian character of the deceased, who loved to work in her Master's service and loved to work for others, forgetting herself. She was always willing and ready to help and good cause. At last her life's work was ended, she wanted to go to her Home Beyond. She was ready to answer her Master's call. The choir rendered "There's a Land that is Fairer Than Day." Other hymns sung were "Jesus Savior Pilot Me," and "There's a Land of Pure Delight." Comforting prayers to the bereaved were given by the minister.

Those left in sore bereavement are her heart-broken husband and one daughter, Etta (Mrs. W. E. Proctor) of Eugenia and four grandchildren, Jean, Arthur, Eleanor, and George Proctor; three brothers, Benjamin Johnston of California, Alex. and Arthur Johnston of Meaford, and two sisters, Miss Margaret Johnston of California, and Mrs. C. W. Saunders of Walters Falls. Among the many floral tokens of sympathy were a wreath from the Hydro employees and friends and neighbors.

The flower carriers were four nephews — Wesley Plantt, Wilfred Slack, Fred and Frank Saunders.

The pallbearers were: Messrs. Alex. Cameron, Fred Pedlar, Fred Jamieson, Jacob Williams, Russell Park and Jack Campbell.

Friends from a distance attending the funeral were: Mrs. Fergus Slack and daughter, Edna, and Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Slack of Toronto, Mrs. Jamieson, Mrs. Halbert and Mr. and Mrs. S. Ellis of Alliston, Mr. and Mrs. Philip White, Mrs. Watson, Mr. A. Johnston, Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Johnston and Mr. M. Abercrombie of Meaford, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Saunders and Irene, Fred and Frank of Walters Falls, Mrs. S. Parker and Mrs. Ellis of Orangeville, Mrs. A. F. Hammond of Toronto, Mrs. J. A. Stuart of Meaford and Mrs. Ted Myles, Heathcote.

To the sorrowing family and relatives we extend our sincere sympathy.

"Take up thy cross and follow Him,
Nor think 'till death to lay it down;
For only he, who bears the cross,
May hope to bear the glorious crown
In that bright eternal city
Where no tears e'er dim the eyes,
In the home of many mansions,
We will meet her bye and bye."

St. John's Ladies' Aid

Mrs. O. W. Phillips was hostess to the Ladies' Aid Society on Tuesday, May 9th. The president, Mrs. G. A. McTavish, presided and after singing a hymn and repeating the Lord's Prayer, Mrs. Cargoe took charge of the devotional period. A report of the cake sale was made, also a report of the aprons made from the print which Eaton's had donated. It was decided to hold a tea at one of the homes the last of this month. Mrs. Service's group had charge of the program and social hour. Mrs. Down, Mrs. Blackburn and Miss Henderson rendered a trio, acrompanied at the piano by Mrs. Chapple. Mrs. Brady gave a reading and Mrs. Armstrong a talk on moral re-armament and read a letter from Dr. Buckman. Fourteen dollars were taken in on the copper contest. Thirty-two ladies were present at the meeting.

Received Medallions

Flesherton school children received medallions commemorating the coming Royal visit, the gift of the Dominion government. The obverse of the medallions displays Their Majesties wearing their crowns and robes of state, and is modelled from a portrait by Percy Metcalf of London, who has designed for the royal mint. The reverse side is designed and modelled by the Toronto artist, Emmanuel Hahn. It displays a map of the Dominion, surmounted by a shield containing Canada's arms. In slight relief across the map is depicted the itinerary of the royal visitors. An inscription in Latin reads, "From sea to sea Canada salutes her King and Queen."
