PRICEVILLE

The banquet held on Friday evening in St. Columba church passed off with great eclat, after a bountiful supper given by the losing side. Rev. A. R. Muir, toast master, introduced the first, to the King, in some fine commendatory references to His Majesty and his lovable consort, and was fervently and musically rendered by the audience. A toast to the Y.P.S. was called for and Miss Anna Cormie, teacher here, spoke of its beneficial qualities, and responded to by Miss Marion Muir. Miss Roberta Harrison proposed the toast to the winners, which was replied to by Mr. Stewart Muir, their delivery testifying to the benefits derived from the social activities of the Y.P.S. The toast to the many visitors, by John Ritchie, was responded to by Mr. Grant Muir, who also gave a couple of bagpipe selections, the last one being the "Road to the Isles." Mr. E. Hutton of Flesherton high school staff, spoke to the toast. Mr. Armstrong of Meaford, one time of Flesehrton sang the "Road to Mandalay." Misses Aileen and Isabelle Karstedt gave a piano duet, and Jane Karstedt contributed a solo on the piano. Some of the old time ditties were sung and everybody had a good time. Mrs. A. R. Muir contrbuted a reading, dramatically, in fine elocutionary form. Mr. Wm. McBride Jr. held the lucky ticket, the prize a Union Jack.

We were favored with a rather too short visit on Saturday from our grand nephew and his wife and son, Billy: Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Wright of Port Credit.

Mothers' Day was fittingly observed on Sunday. The Sunday school children took part, Miss Isabelle Karstedt reading, as set forth in the supplement. Will and Walter McBride, Ross and Jack McConkey and Tommy Mather acting the drama as set forth.

Mr. Fred Plantt and Bernice, Mrs. Jas. Linton, Mrs. Florence Lyons and Mrs. Robt. Osborne attended the funeral of the late Mrs. Leonard Latimer at Eugenia on Sunday. We extend sincere sympathy to Mr. Latimer and daughter and other relatives in their hour of sorrow.

We also extend our sincere sympathy to Mrs. Wilson and family in their bereavement by the passing of Mr. Wilson, whose funeral is taking place today.

The rain is coming down hard at time of writing, but is cold.

Mt. Zion young people gave their play at the hall Friday night and they certainly deserve credit for their first attempt at staging a play, which was well given. Each one did his or her part well.

Service was not held at Mt. Zion church on Sunday, as our minister had two funerals that day.

READ THE "SMALL ADVTS".

Tip-toeing back along the corridor, it was a great relief that that other door did not open and let out a full blast of hate, just as this worshipper was leaving another little shrine.
