(Intended for Last Week)

Their Majesties, the King and Queen, seem to be of special attraction this past week with their visit to Toronto, and large numbers from our Dominion and the United States participated in the Royal welcome. The special train with its twelve coaches was very showy as it came into the station. Next was the appearance of King George followed immediately by Queen Elizabeth on the North Toronto station platform, in their beauty and pleasing attire, with the magnificent display of bunting and decorations about them. As they travelled about the city, to the most prominent places, escorted by officials, Mounties and a guard of honor, it was the most magnificent sight that was ever witnessed in Canada.

Our King is very pleasing and looks capable of the high honor which has been given him. Long may he reign. His noble wife, Queen Elizabeth, has all the high qualities and beauty that she could be endowed with. In conclusion it was a rare treat to those who saw them and a regret to those who were unable to go.

Among those who went to Toronto to see Their Majesties were: Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Teeter, Raymond McFadden, Geo. W. Littlejohns and son, Clifford.
