Politician—"And now, gentleman, I wish to tax your memory." Man in the audience: "Good heavens, has it come to that."

"Can you come right over, Doc . . . she's getting worse!"

If this farmer did not have a telephone it would probably have taken him all day to get "doc" organized—or to summon quick aid for other emergencies—"Sure we need a telephone," this farmer says, "we'd never be without it!"

So why take chances? A telephone means so much to the whole family; it's always handy, and it costs so little.

Don't let another day go by without making arrangements for a telephone at your farm. Every farm should have one.

Osprey Township S. S. Convention

The annual convention of the Sunday Schools of Osprey Township was held at Feversham, in the Salvation Army Barracks, on Thursday, June 22nd.

The afternon session opened at 2.25 with Rev. Stanley Elliott of Maxwell leading the worship service. "Jesus Lover of My Soul" was the first hymn sung. Mr. Ed. Pedlar of the Salvation Army, gave a warm welcome to the visitors including the guest speaker Rev. W. H. Vaughan of Brantford.

The President, Mr. Harvey Pedlar, spoke on the great work that the convention is doing in linking all de nominations in one great cause. The Secretary's report was then given, and a report on the Leadership Training School held last fall at McIntyre church. Roll call of Sunday Schools showed a representation from nine different schools, namely: Wareham, United; Mt. Pleasant, Feversham; Salvation Army; Badjeros, United; Mc.Intyre, United. There were four Sunday Schools in the township who did not send delegates. The Superintents of the Sunday Schools were appointed to act on the nominating and resolutions committees.

A musical selection was rendered by Mrs. Wilfred Inkster and Mrs. John Thompson of Wareham the selection being "The Stranger of Galilee."

Mr. Muckin of the Presbyterian Church delivered an inspiring address the theme being "Suffer Little Children to Come Unto Me."

The children's hymn, " When He Cometh," was sung, after which Rev. W. H. Vaughan led in the round table conference. He told of the work being done by the Ontario Religious Education Council. Rev. Mr. Yates of Shrigley, Rev. E. O. Lancaster of Dundalk, Rev. Mr. McNichol of Feversham and Mr. Wilkins of Maple Grove also spoke at the convention.

The evening session opened with a song service led by Mr. Muckin of Feversham. In the absence of Rev. R. E. Gosse' who was unable to attend on account of illness,Miss Isobell McIntyre took charge of the worship, assisted by Mrs. D. A. McIntyre and Miss Mary McKinnon. The Feversham quartette rendered a selection entitled "Don't Turn the dear Saviour Away," which was much enjoyed by all. The pupils of the Salvation Army Sunday Schol sang, "Hosanna to our Saviour King," conducted by Mrs. Harold Fenwick.

Rev. Mr. Vaughan then installed the new officers for 1939. They are: Mr. Dougald Stevens, President; Mr. John dren's Work; Mrs. Jos. Wright, Boys. Stephen, Vice-Ptes.; W. L. McInnes Work; Mrs. John Thompson, Girls' Work; Mr. Russell Cameron, Young Peoples Work; Rev. Richard Gosse, Teacher Training; Mr. Wm. Fisher, Temperance; Mrs. Gideon Eby, Adult and Home Dept; Mrs James McKenzie Missionary Dept.

Rev. Mr. Vaughan gave another excellent address in the evening. This was followed by the hymn, "When I Survey the wondrous Cross" and the benediction led by Rev. McNichol.

PRAISE CANADIAN POTATOES

Arising out of a trial shimpent of Canadian certified seed potatoes from Nova Scotia to South Africa, the following is an excerpt of the report received from the consignee: "Particular praise must be given to the packing which was perfect, the cases having arrived in wonderful condition, and the grading was better than any received from other countries. On opening up the cases, not one rotten potato was found."
