Live Stock Report

(By Dunn & Levack, Toronto)

On Monday supplies of cattle were about equal for requirements, and the market held steady on mst classes, while cows and bulls showed some preference. Export buyers were active in securing some cattle for shipment to the Unietd States, as well as to the United Kingdom. Sheep, lambs and calves held steady, while hogs were lower.

Choice weighty teers sold generally at a top of 6.75, with good to choice at from 6.50 to 6.65, fair to good 6.00 to 6.50. Choice butcher steers and heifers made 6.50 with a few small lots of extra choice at slightly higher prices. Fair to good from 6.00 to 6.40, common to medium 5.25 to 5.75. Baby beeves barely steady at from 7.00 to 7.50 for choice, others from 6.00 to 7.00. Stocker trade was slow and fully fifty cents lower compared to ten days ago, best light kind 5.00 to 5.25, medium 4.50 to 5.00. Cows held steady, choice heifery cows 5.25, choice fat cows 4.50 to 5.00, fair to good 3.75 to 4.40, common to medium 3.25 to 3.75, canners and cutters 2.50 to 3.00. Bulls were in good demand, best heavy kind from 5.00 to 5.40, light bolognas 4.00 to 4.50.

Lambs held steady at 11 cents, choice veal calves sold readily at from 8.00 to 8.50, fair to good 7.00 to 8.00, common to medium 5.50 to 6.50.

All markets were reported lower on hogs, affecting the local tade, truck deliveries selling on Monday at 9.35. Sows 5.50 with some choice light sows 5.75. Prospects for the balance of the week were uncertain, depending largely upon the outlet to smaller packers and Eastern markets.

Each half of the world pities the other half because it isn't as smart as it is.

A farmer near Brockville reports a four-legged duck on his premises and says it gets around with little trouble. Well, why shouldn't it?

A crowd of boys gathered about the entrance to a circus in a country town, trying to get a glimpse of the interior. A stranger standing near watched them for a few moments, then walked up to the doorkeeper and said: "Let all these boys in, and count them as they pass." "Twenty-eight, sir," said the official when the last one had been admitted. "Good," said the stranger as he turned and walked off, "I guessed the number exactly!"

Orangemen Attended Divine Service at Baptist Church

Divine service for the Orangement of Flesherton was held in the Baptist church Sunday evening and was joined by Carnation Lodge, No. 545, L.O.B.A., and members of the L.O.L. from Proton Station, Orange Valley and Fourth Line. Rev. F. Ashton, Deputy Grand Chaplain of the L.O.L. of Ontario West, preached a splendid sermon. Two male quartette numbers were given by Messrs. F. W. Duncan, C. J. Bellamy, F. J. Thurston and G. Cairns. Rev. G. K. McMillan of St. John's church assisted in the service as the evening service in the United church was withdrawn.

A revival of old-fashioned honesty is one of our many needs today.

This week's fairy story: There is a man in this town who has never been known to utter a compaint about the punk weather on the half holiday.

According to new rules of the Ontario College of Education teachers must now be taught how to speak pleasantly. And spanking should be done the same way.

There are many cars being driven with one headlight, and this causes uneasiness on the part of other drivers because they are not sure which side of the car has the light. If every car kept its own side of the road, there would be no fear of running into one, even if it had only one light, but there are always some drivers who like to hog the middle of the road.

Miss Eleanor Roszell of Caledonia gave a very pleasing violin solo "My Rosary" at the morning service in St. John's United church. Another fine musical number was a soprano solo by Miss Margaret Ready of St. Mary's. Both these young ladies are talented and their numbers were appreciated by the congregaiton.

The annual garden party of St. John's United Church was held on Thursday evening last. Supper was served in the church and the program was held in Memorial Park. Maxwell and Flesherton tangled in a softball game, the former winning 13-12. The concert was presented by a Toronto troup and was excellent, one of the numbers being a ventriloquist. All the numbers were real fine, and a high class concert was enjoyed.

NOT IMMODEST TO ADVERTISE

It is not immodest to advertise. If you don't tell others about yourself and what you are doing, you remain in the dark.

Men who set out to serve the public owe it to both the public and themselves to tell the public about themselves, their business and their service.

Many men in business say with "We don't advertise," which means of course "We don't believe in telling our customers and our non-customers about ourselves, our business and our service."

A man enters in retail business to serve the public, not to find a way of putting in time; and the public demands work. It dismisses lazy retailers by buying in other places.

The public does not like tongue-tied retailers; it wants retailers who advertise—who communicate information in the accepted manner— by means of newspaper advertising.

Only the retailer himself thinks that it is immodest to advertise. Retailers who say,"We never advertise"are vain as peacocks. It is arrogance in retail when he says "We never advertise."

Nazi Germany boasts of a train which travels as high as 133 miles per hour. Now they'll have to build an auto to compete at crossings.

The one fashion that never goes out of date is that of suggesting things it would be nice for other people to do.

Woman (going to attend a political meeting): I'm not prejudiced at all. I'm going with a perfectly open and unbiased mind to listen to what I'm convinced is pure rubbish.

A Howick man has been charged with stealing and carrying away a 170 pound plow from the farm of a neighbor in that township. He must have needed it badly.
