PRICEVILLE

Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm S. W. Dingwall and daughter of Presque Isle, Maine, left for home the beginning of last week, after visiting her many friends here, in too-short a time at their disposal. We regret our failure to meet our old-time organist of 1907 (Miss Maude Reiley). The annual anniversary of our old church and concert at Amos, Dromore, to which we always wish to prove loyal, was the prime reason for our absence here when visited. Then, the opening of the redecorated agricultural hall, of which we were a member 50 years ago, and later a director for many years, claimed our loyalty.

Miss Anna McVicar, with her friend Miss Jennie Parkins, and niece, Anne Lynne, arrived Saturday evening on a visit with the former's parents, and returned to Toronto Sunday afternoon.

Rev. A. R. Muir is back from his holidays much refreshed, and occupied his own pulpit on Sunday. Next Sunday (D.V.) he will preach in the Presbyterian church, alternately, as in the past month by Rev. Taylor.

We were again highly honored on Sunday by a pleasant appreciated visit from a dear old-time friend, Miss Edna McHugh, one time popular teacher here, now of Richmond Vale.
