Convenor, Mrs. Jack Whyte, and the special speaker will be Mrs. W. Beaton. Lunch Com.: sandwiches, Mrs. Elmer Watson, Mrs. J. P. McMillan; cake, Mrs. McConkey and Miss L. Mather.

The united congregations of St. Andrews and St. Columba met in the latter church on Sunday and were treated, in addition to the sermon by Rev. A. R. Muir, to three fine selections by a male quartette from Durham, Messrs. Glass, Whitemore, Bayley and Padfield, with little Miss Helen Renwick of Durham accompanying very cleverly for one so young. A beautiful musical chord in their second selection was pleasing and thrilling, seldom heard in a quartette. They were appreciated by us and all.

Mr. Innis McLean kindly took three Sutheralnd boys to a boys' training camp near Barrie on Sunday.

Mr. Alex. McLean, an expert teacher in manual training in Toronto, together with his estimable wife, visited at the home of his parents over the week end, and took in the service at Inistioge in the afternoon.

Mr. John McVicar was a visitor at the parental home last week from Jackson's Point, where he has been spending the summer. He is looking fine and has his cheery smile as usual.

READ THE "SMALL ADVTS".

When it is very hot try and think of the days when it was very cold. It probably will not help at all, but it costs nothing.

Unification of management for the CanadianRailways would chop off the heads of some ten to twenty thousand dollars per year executives. Therefore it is unpopular in high places, but it would save money, especially if the management was free from political influence.
