POSITION OF REGIMENT

Elsewhere in this issue appears an article and explanation of the position of the Grey & Simcoe Foresters Regiment, whose regimental area is the Counties of Grey and Simcoe. It sets forth why the Regiment has not been mobilized.

The intention of the Regiment to recruit to war strength is commendable, not only does it give the chap who is willing to serve an opportunity to manifest that desire, but it gives him a definite status as an enlisted man, ready to serve when called. It also is the definite contribution of the Counties of Grey and Simcoe to the nation's effort, as a unit of their own, for under the organization of the Militia, the Regiment will take the field as a unit, with the result that the personel of the Regiment will profit by the efforts of the combined Counties.

WHO WILL BE THE NEXT VICTIM?

Last year the Fire Demon numbered among his victims in Canada 263 men, women and children. In 1937, 105 children lost their lives by fire, while in 1938, 118 children's lives were claimed. This is a staggering admission and the responsibility for such tragedies can in many cases be laid to the negligence of parents who far too often leave their helpless little ones alone in the house while they visit neighbours or go to a show. These holocausts frequently occur in rural districts where neighbors are long distances away and the parents are unable to reach their burning home in time to save their children from a horrible death.

Every parent should realize that it is his duty to teach his children the principles of fire prevention. They should not be allowed to play with fire, matches should be kept out of their reach and the playing with celluloid toys should be discouraged. By a strict adherence to the use of common sense, parents can thus save themselves the bitter anguish and lifelong regret which must be ever present when a child perishes by their neglect.

NO BARGAINS

Somebody says that everything worth having costs what it is worth. We cannot look for many bargains in life. A good education is worth having, but we do not find it on the bargain counter. It must be paid for, in full with hard study, close attention, the sacrifice of many an hour's fun that might lower the classroom record next day. But we can turn that same saying around — things that are worth having are worth what they cost. Who would not rather plan and save and buy a good coat at a fair price than have a shoddy one that cost lttle? Who would not rather have a good education at the same price of hard study than a shoddy one gotten by unpolished work at school? And who wouldn't rather have a fine, outstanding, worthwhile character, won at the price of continuous effort, than a poor weak, spineless existence, at the cost of aimless drifting along the lines of least resistance? — Winchester Press.

1,500 RETURNED MEN GET JOBS AS GUARDS

The Advance is informed that up to date over 1,500 veterans of the last war have been given positions as guards and special police, about half of them being hired by the government, hydro, etc., and the other half by private manufactures. Returned men have been given the preference in these positions, and, as will be seen from the above, many of them have been taken on the protective force. They are all men who have not had steady employment during recent years.

The Harvest Home service at the Rock Mills Baptist Church was well attended, the church being beautifully decorated wth fruit, flowers, autumn leaves and vegetables.. The young people's choir, with Mrs. C. Hanley at the piano, did splendidly and Mrs. Walter Akitt rendered very sweetly a solo "I Walk With the King." The pastor's subject was "Gifts for the Tabernacle." Next Sunday afternoon service will be according to the Rally Day program. A welcome awaits everyone.

Good congregations attended the Flesherton Baptist Church last Sunday, the morning message being based upon "Witnessing," while the evening service was in charge of the Alliance Young People, with Mr. Watt as leader. Two earnest messages were given by two of the young people and a solo was effectively rendered by Miss Bailey. The service was greatly appreciated by all present.

Next Sunday morning the Harvest Home service will be held in the Flesherton Baptist church, when an augmented choir will render special music, with an appropriate message by Pastor Ashton. Donations of fruit, flowers and vegetables will be received at the church Saturday afternoon and plants properly cared for. It is hoped a large attendance will be manifested.
