To put a rod through a curtain without catching the material, place a thimble on the end.

Postmasters have been warned to be on the lookout for attempts to mail anything which looks like gold to the United States. It's so long since the average person has seen any gold in this country that the post office people may need a special course of instruction.

Dora: "Agnes married a self made man, didn't she?"

Edith: "Yes but she compelled him to make extensive alterations."

An Irishman, hearing a rumor that his bank had suspended payment, rushed around to withdraw his money.

"How would you like it?" asked the clerk, "In big bills or little ones."

"Oh, I don't want it all if you've got it," replied the Irishman, "but if you haven't, I must have it all."

READ THE "SMALL ADVTS".

We have a private war of our own at present against the myriads of flies that crowd into our office from the great outdoors seeking warmth and comfort and scattering dicomfort for all around. The Dumbells used to sing "Where do all the flies go in the winter time?" Wherever it is we wish they would get started, for no matter how many we put out of commission as many more come to the funeral.

St. John's Ladies' Aid

The Woman's Association of St. John's United Church met at the home of Mrs. Gordon Wauchope on Oct. 17, with 43 ladies present, and the president, Mrs. G. McTavish, presiding. After a sing-song, Mrs. Keith McMillan led in prayer, followed by the minutes of the last meeting which were discussed. Mrs. Cargoe took charge of the devotional period. All repeated the Lord's Prayer, followed with prayer by Mrs. Cargoe. The treasurer reported the proceeds of the dinner served to the ministers and laymen of the Grey Presbyterial. The advisability of not having a fowl supper was discussed and it was decided, instead, to ask the congregation for the amount of the fowl supper, collectors to canvass. It was decided to send a letter of thanks to the Masons for the loan of their tables. Mrs. Wauchope's group had charge of the program. Mrs. Cargoe, Miss Nicholson and Mrs. Inkster each gave pleasing readings. Lunch was served and a social hour spent.

Forger Gyps Merchant

A smooth talking young man called at Mel. Ross' store in Creemore on Tuesday and after purchasing a $1.50 suit of underwear, presented a cheque for seven dollars on the Bank of Montreal, and signed Leslie A. More. The young man gave the name Robt. Johnston and talking familiarly as if he were a native, Mr. Ross accepted the and paid the young man $5.50 change. Presenting the cheque at the Bank it was discovered to be a forgery. It was revealed that a young man, probably the same one, had played the same game on two Stayner men. In each case the cheques were small. Police are investigating.—Stayner Sun.

"Algy's going to be married again." "I didn't even know he had been married." He hasn't, but he's often been going to."

A person has to be a contortionst to get along these days. First of all he's got to keep his back to the wall, and his ear to the ground. He's expected to put his shoulder to the wheel, his nose to the grindstone, keep a level head, and both feet on the ground. And at the same time look for the silver lining with his head in the clouds.
