VICTORIA CORNERS

It begins to look like winter when we see the men erecting the snow fences.

Mr. George Ludlow was very ill last week but is improving.

When Walter Acheson harvested his garden he found that, on account of the proximity of the cucumber bed and citrons, that one fruit grew long, like a cucumber, with a citron peeling. Inside it was like a citron, but had small white pointed seeds like a cucumber.

All the various showers which are held for brides never seem to dampen their enthusiasm for the bbig event.
