Honor Ceylon Couple On Golden Wedding

(By Ceylon Correspondent)

Saturday evening friends and neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. Alex. McFadyen surprised them at their home on the occasion of their golden wedding anniversary, and presented them with a couch. Mrs. Melville Hogarth read a lovely address on behalf of the friends and the gift was presented by Mesdames Anna McMillan and S. McDermid. Mr. and Mrs. McFadyen responded with wit, thanking all for their good wishes and kindness. Mr. Grant Muir added zest to the occasion with several selections on the bagpipes. Following euchre, lunch was served. The Advance extends its heartiest congratulations to this fine couple and wishes them many more years together.

News In Advts.

This week we are forced to hold over most of the budgets of news from our correspondents, due to the increased amount of advertising which came in at the last moment. We offer these advertisements to our readers as live news, as they portray the places where you can secure your Christmas gifts easily and at prices that you know before you buy. They advertise because they want your business and good-will. Shop with those who advertise, you are assured of fair prices and good service.

We hope you will bring your fowl to the annual fowl day in Flesherton next Wednesday, Dec. 13th, when buyers will be present from outside points besides local dealers, to buy your poultry at the highest prices. See the large list of special prizes in this issue, offered by the merchants of Flesherton.

White Gift Service

Next Sunday morning in St. John's United church we will hold our annual White Gift service, when the Sunday School will join the congregation. Many children received names of those to whom gifts are to be sent in Northern Ontario. Any who did not get a name may share in this service. Wrap your gift as you would like to have it wrapped for yourself, and put on the outside of it the person for whom it is suitable and whether it is for a boy or a girl. You might bring picture books, games, dolls, candy or articles of clothing, sweaters, mittens, gloves mufflers, caps, stockings or underwear. If the clothing has been used, it should be clean and mended. A Junior Choir will assist at the service. Mr. McMillan will preach on, "Getting and Giving."

Mr. John Porteous Died Monday Evening

Mr. John Porteous, a resident of Flesherton for a number of years, and formerly of Rock Mills, died at his home in Flesherton on Monday evening, December 4th, in his 70th year. A week ago he suffered a stroke while driving his car near his son's home at Rock Mills and, ungided, the car crashed into a telelephone pole. He was taken to the home of his son, Joyce, and then brought to his home in Flesherton. His condition was grave from the result of the stroke and accident, and he gradually grew weaker, death finally coming Monday evening.

The funeral of the late Mr. Porteous is taking place this Wednesday afternoon, with service in Flesherton Baptist church at 2 p.m. Interment will be made in Salem Cemetery.

Red Cross Organizations

Artemesia-Flesherton Asks For $1500

Flesherton-Artemesia Red Cross Branch organized in the town hall on Thursday evening of last week. Major E. H. A. Watson, of Ontario Divisional Headquarters met, what he termed, the largest organization gathering he had encountered outside of the cities, since the drive began in September. Reeve A. Down, presided while Major Watson explained the current Red Cross set-up on a national and provincial basis. Local branches receive instructions from Provincial Headquarters, who in turn are controlled by the National Headquarters in Ottawa. The latter are in direct contact with the Canadian Army Medical Corps. In this way the organization will direct its efforts entirely to supplying needs as communicated by the Medical Corps and officers in charge of troop supplies. As all organizations wishing to contribute to the war effort in this phase are advised to do so through the Red Cross, duplication and waste effort in the making of useless or poor quality supplies will be eliminated, All Branches have full information regarding the needs of the army and the specifications for filling these needs. They will also supply materials and instructions to organizations and individuals who wish to serve their country in this way.

The organization contemplates centrally-located branches in all parts of the province to the end that every individual may share in the work. For this purpose Branches select representatives from all parts of the district to be served to act on the directorate and to take charge of the activities in their localities.

Fifteen hundred dollars has been set as the objective for this district. The funds are used for the purchase of wool and other materials required by the organization and are completely under the control of the local branches. The drive for financial assistance will commence immediately. Mr. Alfred Down, campaign manager, has chosen his solicitors. All solicitors and organizations raising money for the Red Cross must have proper credentials, under penalty of criminal indictment. Contributions will be acknowledged by a written receipt.

Officers of the Flesherton-Artmesia Red Cross Branch elected at the organization meeting are: President, H. A. McCauley; 1st Vice President, Mrs. T. Brady; 2nd Vice President, Mrs. J. O. Dargavel; Secretary, K. G. Goheen; Asst. Secretary, Mrs. J. A. Richards; Treasurer, R. B. Heard; Executive (to be augmented) Rev. Ashton, Rev. McMillan, Rev. Dr. Mercer Mrs. O. W. Phillips, Mrs. H. A. McCauley, Mrs. Boyd, Mrs. C. S. McTavish, Mrs. E. Fisher, Mrs. J. Heard; Campaign Manager, A. Down.

It was moved that the Flesherton Council be requested to permit use of the council room and library as Red Cross Branch headquarters in Flesherton

Red Cross canvassers will begin on a canvass of the village the first of next week. Please meet them with an open purse and a cheerful smile. It is for your country and humanity. Donations also will be received at the business places displaying the Red Cross. Have this district go over the top in Red Cross Giving.

London had baby clinics as early as 1816.

A. Hutchinson Heads Osprey Branch

A meeting was held at Feversham on Tuesday evening, Nov. 28th, at which a Red Cross branch for Osprey Township was formed. Major Watson of Headquarters division in Toronto, was present and in a very clear and concise manner outlined the work which a branch, such as this, should conduct, and how the funds, needed to carry on, could be legally canvessed for. He also gave a very interesting talk on how the Red Cross Headquarters is doing everything in its power to be able to meet any and every emergency upon which it will be called for the duration of the war.

An Executive was appointed by those present consisting of: President, Mr. A. Hutchinson; 1st Vice President, Mr. J. Stinson; 2nd Vice-President, Mrs. G. Eby; Treasurer, Mr. H. C. Francis; Secretary, Mr. C. N. Long; Mrs. H. Francis, chairman of the Ladies' Work Committee; Committee, Messrs. M. Sayers, G. McDonald, J. Hudson and W. L. Taylor.

A further meeting is being held at Maxwell on Friday evening, Dec. 8th, to appoint, if it is deemed advisable, more members to the Executive, also to discuss and formulate the best plan for a canvass of the Township for funds, and any other matter which will further the work of the Branch.

Every man and woman in the Township, who has the interest of the Empire and its Allies at heart, is urged to attend, and in this way do their bit.

Luncheon At Listowel

(By Ceylon Correspondent)

Miss Agnes Macphail, M.P., was a guest of honor at a luncheon held at Listowel on Monday, Dec. 4th, when Mrs. Matthews wife of the Lieutenant-Governor, entertained the officers of the Listowel and Walkerton batteries and their wives and the M.P.'s and their wives. The luncheon was preceded by a review of the troops by His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor.

Writes Poetry of Merit

Miss Loreen Graham, elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Graham of the Reenville Theatre, town, is becoming a poetess of recognized ability and her latest achievement is to have one of her writings published in "Christian Lyrics of 1939," a New York publication, which contains only timely and meritorious poetry. The poem submitted by Miss Graham is entitled "After" and its conclusion in the 1939 Lyrics is a distinct tribute to her literary ability. She has also had poems published in the Toronto Globe & Mail, the Missionary Monthly, Toronto, and The Family Herald and Weekly Star, Montreal, and has at least fifty offerings in verse for publication.—Walkerton Herald Times.

LOSES SHIRT ON WAR BET—AND PAYS!

Last summer at the beach a prominent local nurse while in conversation with a returned man, asked if he believed there would be a war before Christmas. He returned the reply that he thought there would be and went so far as to say he would bet his shirt on it The nurse took the veteran up on the bet.

This week through the mail, the gentleman, much to his suprise, received a ladys shirt!—Wiarton Echo.
