"She says here, she'll be home to-night!"

8.30 P.M.

Is there anything more worrying than waiting? One voice inside you says: "Don't be silly, she's all right . ." And another voice whispers: "Perhaps she's had an accident . . . oh dear, what shall I do?"

"I would have stayed up all night!"

8.45 A.M.

But when you hear her voice on the telephone you know all is well—you thank heaven for Long Distance service — you realize how easy it is to keep in touch — and you like people who do.

"She didn't realize that I couldn't get away"

Sometimes you think older people are foolish to worry — but somehow you feel better when you've brought calm and peace to anxious minds —

by LONG DISTANCE

And it's so easy too. Your call is on its way in a few seconds, your destination reached in the twinkling of an eye. Use low Night Rates applying every evening after seven (and all day Sunday as well), and place "Anyone" calls.
