Maxwell Lady Picked As Tune Guesser

An interesting event in regard to this district as a whole and to Mrs. Walter Poole of Maxwell in particular, is the choosing of her name on the weekly "Mystery Tune Contest," given by the Robin Hood Flour Mills. Her name was drawn last Thursday night on the regular broadcast, and she will attempt to name the mystery tune played by H. M. Canadian Genadier Guards' band from Montreal.. If she guesses the name of the tune correctly she will receive a cash prize of $100 and an Omega wrist watch. Mr. Herb Poole of Maxwell sold the flour to Mrs. Poole and he will receive a cash prize of $25 whether or not the tune is named correctly. The program commences on the CBC network at 8.30 p.m. and can be heard locally over CBL, Toronto. Mrs. Poole is to be at the store of her brother-in-law, Mr. Herb Poole, and a direct wire will be connected with Montreal over which she will give her answer and the conversation recorded. This is the first time that a name has been selected from eastern Canada, in the previous programs the names have all been from the West.

Tune in to CBL at 8.30 p.m. Thursday night, Dec. 21, and find whether or not Mrs. Poole can name the tune. We wish her the best of success in her chance for a little ready cash and a handsome prize.

Come to the supper and concert in St. John's United Church on Friday December 29th.

A Cool Capture

A few moments of extra excitement occurred in town early Monday afternoon when a team of horses owned by Mr. Dick Clark of Rock Mills took French leave from the United church shed and left on their own. They headed west along Spring street, turned right at the corner and on rounding the curve on the Durham road one of the horses fell when it hit the slippery pavement. This failed to dampen their ardor and they kept on going, crossing the main corner at a fast clip, headed for home. Mr. Clark at the time was just coming from a stable on Collingwood and attempted to stop the team but they would have travelled right over him if he hand not moved at the last minute. His son, Bob, had Dr. Milne's team out for exercise and was in front of Mr. M. Wilson's residence when he saw the team and wagon coming toward him. He coolly turned the team and buggy and as the runaway reached him they were forced to the side of the roadway and as he held the bridle of one of his own team, Bob reached for the bridle of the off horse and stopped their mad careening. One wheel on the wagon was destroyed, but no other damage resulted. The stopping of that runaway was one of the coolest actions we have seen for some time.

Canadian Troops Are Arrived In England

The first contingent of Canadian soldiers arrived in England on Sunday, December 17th, after sailing from Halifax on December 10th. They had an uneventful voyage and were escorted across the Atlantic by destroyers and warships of the British navy. They will receive advanced training in England and in three or four months will likely be sent to France for active service. The Canadians are being led by General A. G. L. McNaughton, a veteran of the Great War who distinguished himself in that conflict. So starts another glorious chapter in the annals of Canada's fighting sons. No doubt they will distinguish themselves, as the last Canadian army did in April 1915, when they stemmed the German advance to Ypres and suffered heavily from the poison gas which their foes used for the first time. May they all have a safe return home.

Struck on Head by Log

(By our Rock Mills Corr.)

Mr. Ed. Eeeley of Maxwell, who was trucking logs to the mill here, had the misfortune to receive a serious injury. While unloading his truck, a log slipped, striking him on the head and rendering him unconscious for a time. He was removed to the Markdale hospital for a couple of days. The latest report is that he is recovering nicely and was able to be removed to his home at Maxwell. Mr. Foster, the manager, has warned other truckers not to come into the yard at night, as it is a dangerous practice unloading after dark.

Nominations for the 1940 Council of the Township of Osprey will be held at Maxwell this Friday afternoon, Dec. 22nd. The nominations will be held from 1 to 2 p.m., following which addresses will be made by members of the present council and any aspiring ratepayers.

Whether or not an election will be held in Osprey remains to be seen, but we understand that several will be nominated for the various offices. We have heard that Wm. Heitman, a former Deputy-Reeve, will oppose Reeve Arnold Hutchinson and that Jas. Winters will come out for the office of Deputy-Reeve, now held by Morton Sayers. Then as councillors we have the names of Caleb Clayton of Badjeros, Jack McKinnon of McIntyre and Art Wilson of Maxwell, besides the present councillors, Geo. McDonald, Jas. Stinson and John Hudson. Friday will tell whether these men or others will run, or whether the council will be elected by acclamation.

Centre Grey Schedule

At a well attended meeting of representitatives from the various clubs in the Central Ontario Hockey League, held Wednesday night at Dundalk, the schedule for the intermediate teams was drawn up for the 1939-40 season. The schedule calls for two games in the old year (both Dec. 29) and the games to be completed by February 9th.

Prior to the representatives from the various clubs getting into the more serious business of arranging the schedule, Dr. R. L. Carefoot of Markdale presided over two presentations sponsored by the league. One was to Cecil Loucks of Chatsworth, who has been the efficient secretary-treasurer of the league since it was inaugurated four years ago. The other was to Rev. Father Callaghan, parish priest of Dundalk, who has filed the office of president very acceptably for the past three years and has now been named honorary president. Dr. Carefoot expressed the worth that these retiring officials have been to the League and presented each with a pen and pencil set, for which fitting acknowledgement was expressed.

The cup presented for annual competition in the league was a gift from the retiring president and is known as the Callaghan Trophy.

The following schedule of games was then drawn up.

Dec.29—Dundalk at Grand Valley.
29—Shelburne at Markdale.
Jan. 2—Markdale at Flesherton.

Feb. 2—Markdale at Chatsworth.

Play-off arrangements call for the first four teams entering the semi-finals, home and home games, with goals to count on the round. The finals will be home and home games, games to count.

The league will sponsor a juvenile series in addition to the intermediate grouping. the juvenile grouping has not been definitely decided upon. There is a possibility that one group will operate in the southern territory of the league and another among the northern teams, in which case play-offs would be arranged between the the two groups.
