VICTORIA CORNERS

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Moore accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Stinson to Toronto. The Moores remained to visit their daughters, and attend the funeral of their cousin, Mrs. Ed Mack.

The Young People held their Monday evening meeting at the home of Mr. Joe Copeland.

Mr. and Mrs. Jno. Batchelor and family, of Bethel, visited at the home of Mr. Tom Talbot.

The T.B. inspector is working around here. We think Grey County can well be proud of its record of having so few reactors. About 20 years ago when Dr. Tory tested the first cattle that were tested in Grey county, he was highly pleased that there should be no reactors in his native county, as he was born near Owen Sound. He may still be pleased with his county, for compared with many others of the counties we have comparitively few reactors. We heard of a man who offered the Inspectors five and some twenty-five dollars to pass his cattle. We wonder if any of these men wouldn't be of the type to say, "Oh the government won't do anything for the farmer," and when the government tries to stamp disease out of his herd, he will try to bribe them to leave it there. He thinks the government won't do anything for him.

"On one litter of 11 pigs born December 23rd, my feed cost to bring them to an average weight of 207 lbs. was $8.18 per pig. These pigs, when sold, averaged me $18.54, giving me a profit over feed cost of $10.36 per pig. They were sold at an average price of $8.75 per cwt. Out of the 11 pigs I had 7 selects." Signed W. H. H.

Port Elgin, Ont.
"I marketed 9 hogs at five months and ten days. They averaged 209 lbs. alive; the dressing percentage was 81.38. The amount of feed to produce 100 lbs. pork (alive) was 336 lbs. The amount of feed to produce 100 lbs. pork (on the rail) was 411 lbs. The average cost of feed, charging $1.00 per cwt. for my home-grown grain, was $1.25 per cwt. I used Blatchford's 41% Hog Concentrate. Signed W. G. N.

PROTON STATION

There is not much news just now. Motor traffic is at a stand-still on three of the roads leading into this village, but cars are coming in from the highway, though sometimes with difficulty. However, there is good sleighing and we never consider the roads are blocked until a team of horses and a sleigh cannot get through the drifts. We are very fortunate in having the C.P.R at our disposal. There is no severe illness in Proton Station, for which we are thankful and the five baby boys which the stork distributed quite recently in the village or very close by, are doing remarkably well.

Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Hodgin of Owen Sound spent the week end with Proton Station friends.

Mrs. Hugh Copeland and son, Bob, of Brampton were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Reddick.
