MAXWELL CHARGE

REV. GEO. L. MERCER, B.D., D.D.

Minister

PALM SUNDAY, March 17th, commemorates a joyous procession from Bethany to Jerusalem Jesus enters the city, accompanied by multitudes, seated on a colt. It lacks every mark of worldly pomp and power, but it is wholly in keeping with his appearance and life among men. It is his last challenge and appeal to his people to see in Him the true son of David for whom the generations had looked. He wanted them to see that their Messiah's kingdom was to be spiritual kingdom with humility, love and service as its laws, instead of a temporal kingdom in which pride, haughtiness and insolence force should manifest themselves.

11 a.m.—Mt. Zion.
3 p..m.—Wareham.
7.30 p.m.—Maxwell.

The morning sermon will deal with "Our Lord's Lament over a Doomed City." Afternoon and evening theme: "The Blindness of Historic Leaders."

PASSION WEEK March 18 to 21—Evangelistic services each evening in Wareham church, commencing at 8 o'clock, followed by membership class for young people.

We invite you to shares these services with us.

: HOCKEY :

The Semi-Pro. decided to have the old executive act on the League business Monday night at Priceville and Flesherton's protest has been discarded. It is a strange decision as neither the president nor secretary will act, which leaves the treasurer in charge of the league decisions as there were no representatives from the clubs on the former executive. In allowing Donald Carson, who has resided in Toronto for the past three years, to continue to play the teams are just making a joke of the League and defeating the aims of the league when it was organized a few years ago, and they are also going contrary to their present constitution.

This Wednesday night the first of the final games between Priceville and Feversham takes place on local ice, the next in Markdale Saturday night and it has not been decided where the third game will be played. The series will be best three games out of five, and may the best team win.

Baptist Church Notes

Minister: Rev. Fred Ashton

Services—Flesherton.
Sunday 11 a.m.—Worship.
12 noon—Bible School.
7 p.m.—Gospel Service.
Rock Mills:
2 p.m.—Bible School.
3 p.m.—Worship.

"Oh Worship the Lord in the Beauty of Holiness."

Services last Sunday were well attended. The morning message was given by Mr. C. Nelson on "Personal Work," and in the evening Mr Bruce Ashton gave the message on "Unity." Both of these messages were timely and greatly appreciated by the congregations. The pastor gave the message at Rock Mills, his subject being "Doers Wanted."

Next Sunday being Palm Sunday, the pastor will speak morning and afternoon on the question "Who is This?" Appropriate music by the choir led by Mr. Nelson. The evening subject will be "Wrong Directions."

"Here's your station lady — after searching for hours the men found her out on the prairies covered with a shroud of ice and snow — the little babe folded to her heart—."

How shall we spend Good Friday? At the Cross or at the dance?

"Jesus keep me near the Cross."

May that be our prayer and endeavor.

If you are a road hog you should be in a pen.

Councils all over the province have a spell of protesting about the provinal government cutting down the size of the municipal grant.And now that the protesting has been completed, what about it?
