TROUBLES ARE MANY

(By Wareham Correspondent)

Trouble has been compared to a flock of crows gathering about their victim—first one, then another, until the air is full of blackness. Dave Jamieson of Toronto will probably agree with the idea. In early February Dave had three teeth extracted, and later had to have his jaw lanced on account of pus collection. Shortly after his return to work in the railroad yards he was thrown under a locomotive and lost his left arm. Last week Mrs. Jamieson, while on her way to the hospital to visit Dave, fell and broke her arm, also cutting it. At last reports both patients were doing well. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Davison went at once to help the young family. Mrs. Davison is a sister of Mrs. Jamieson.

Baptist Church Notes

Minister: Rev. Fred Ashton

Services—Flesherton.
Sunday 11 a.m.—Worship.
12 noon—Bible School.
7 p.m.—Gospel Service.
Rock Mills:
2 p.m.—Bible School.
3 p.m.—Worship.

Easter services in the two Baptist churches were fairly well attended, considering the inclement weather and roads. In the morning and evening services the choir rendered appropriate music, and the Communion table was beautifully decorated with Easter lilies and daffodils. Mrs. Walter Akitt was the soloist at the afternoon service, rendering very effectively a lovely song "Jesus still remembers you." The pastor spoke at the three services on the Resurrection. These messages were greatly appreciated.

Feversham Indians Semi-Pro. Champions

Feversham Indians are now the 1940 holders of the McDougal Trophy, the cup presented each year to the winners of the Semi-Pro. League. Priceville put up a great scrap in all the games, but at times appeared to be out-lucked on a number chances. Feversham won three out of the four games played, losing the first one of the series, then taking three straight. The final games in Markdale resulted in a 7-4 win for the Indians.

This is Feversham's first year in organized hockey and they did remarkably well during the season. It was a team managed by "Dannie" Sled, with no organized club behind them, just a bunch of boys who loved hockey and played the game for all it was worth. One instance to show the spirit of the team was when one player was in bed with a heavy cold at 4.30 in the afternoon, but got up and drove five miles to Feversham to come with the team.

While Priceville, last year's winners of the Semi-Pro. League, were slow in starting they finished with Ceylon in a tie for the last play-off berth, eliminated the railway boys, they trounced Flesherton, took the first game from Feversham and then were forced to bow to the champions in the next three. The brand of hockey played in this loup has improved the past few years, and no club showed greater improvement than Priceville during the past four years.

The Priceville players were: Goal, Warnick; defence, McLean and Frook; centre, Bell; wings, E. Turnbull and D. Turnbull; alternates, McConkey, O'Dell, Carson and McVicar. Priceville uncovered a splendid player this year in McConkey, who is only 15 years of age and played great hockey, usually gathering from one to four goals in each game.

Following is a bit of data on the Feversham players:

BOWINS, Parry, son of Mr. Johnston Bowins, 21 years old, plays goal and learned his hockey in an out-door rink at Rob Roy.

HUDSON, Lloyd, aged 21, plays defence and assists his father, Mr. John Hudson, on the farm near Feversahm. This was his first year playing hockey.

MOORE, Jack, defence, aged 23, came from Kingston and is teller in the Bank of Toronto, Feversham, played some hockey in Kingston.

SLED, George (Dannie), learned his hockey in Flesherton where he played senior for several years, 26 yars old plays right wing and is doing well in a service station at Feversham.

SPRINGGAY, Ronald (Buster), 19 years old, plays right wing, son of Mrs. Springgay and the late R. W. Springgay, who was a miller at Feversham, is now employed with R. J. Priestley in Flesherton.

SPRINGGAY, Allan, 17 years old plays centre and is a brother of 'Buss'

MULLIN, Bruce, age 21, right wing. with his father on the farm near Rob Roy, learned hockey on the rink on their farm. Tried out with Collingwood this past fall.

MULLIN, Bruce, age 21, right wing. Bruce, plays centre and knows his way around the ice, also at home on the farm.

It is interesting to note that 60 goals were scored in the four games by the two teams, Feversahm taking 40 of them. The Feversham goals were netted by the following: "Buss" Springgay 13, Allan Springgay 9, Mullin 7, "Dannie" Sled 5, Murray Lepard 3, Elmer Mullin 2 and John Moore 1.

The Late Ernie Boyle

(By Kimberley Correspondent)

The many friends of Mr. Ernie Boyle were shocked Saturday morning March 16th, to learn of his passing in Collingwood hospital, where he had been for some weeks. He seemed in his usual health, although was a sufferer from hay fever and asthma, but lately developed acute rheumatic fever. Mrs. Boyle, formerly Miss Ina Magee, and sister of Mrs. W. Elliott of Markdale, were with him almost constantly.

The late Mr. Boyle was born near Markdale and then moved with his parents to the Valley, where he was married, later moving to New England, and then to the Hortop farm, where he was an up-to-date farmer, north of Kimberley. He and his family were active church workers at the Union Church, and was also a member of Beaver Valley Lodge No. 234, A.F. &A.M., Thornbury. He was also a member of the Rotary Club, secretary of the Collingwood Agricultural Society, a director of the Plowmen's Association and a representative of a fire insurance company.

It is with sorrow we see such a useful life taken so early in life, he was in his 50th year. He leaves to mourn his passing, his wife, one daughter and three sons, also his sister, Mrs. Walter Elliott, Markdale.

The funeral was held from his late residence on Monday afternon. The body will rest in Thornbury mortuary chapel until spring, when it will be removed to be interred in the Markdale cemetery.

We sincerely sympathize with the bereaved family.

Enjoy Mysterious Radio Program While in Bush

(By Victoria Corners, Corr.)

Last Thursday when George and Ted Moore were working in their bush they distinctly and quite loudly heard a radio program for about an hour. They could distinguish some of the pieces which they knew. They were at a loss to know the origin of this music. It was not from the direction of the highway, nor was anyone working in the bush nearby who might have had a radio with them. No house was near enough, and it was rather unlikely that doors would be open on a cold day for one hour. After much conjecture it was thought it must be music from the loud speaker in Flesherton—a distance of three miles or more. At first they wondered if the air was so full of music it did not need an aparatus to centralize it. We wonder if a better explanation could be offered?

ROADS DELAYED NEWS

The Advance has two obituaries of the late Mr. Angus McLachlan of Priceville, who passed away Thursday of last week, and another of Miss Mary Simpson who died at her home in Priceville March 15, and George Campbell, on Sat., March 23. Due to the late arrival of the copy on account of the bad roads we are unable to publish these articles, so we will have to leave them over until next week.

Piggy Decides to Continue Dainty Mode of Living

(By Victoria Corners Corr.)

When pigs become more valuable, how exclusive their tastes become. There are a number of young pigs arriving in this neighborhood and most of them are doing very well. but occasionally some of them need special care and need to be taken into the house. In one house this was the case and a semi-porcelain cup was given porky to drink from. When he was returned to the barn a tin was submitted, but porky absolutely refused to dring until he was given his nice cup.

STORM FILLED ROADS STOPPING TRAFFIC

Road conditions in this district became very bad over the week end and motor traffic to Feversham and Singhampton came to a stand-still. High winds drifted the heavy cuts on the road almost full of snow, packed it tight and left the highway unfit for motor traffic and very heavy for horse-drawn vehicles. The Flesherton plow was attempting to open the road Sunday and Monday, but the road filled in almost as fast as it was plowed. Back roads were also well filled and made travel very difficult and brought the number of electors in rural sections away below that of the former election. It was almost impossible for the older people to exorcise their franchise, due to the cold and difficulty of travel.

Up to 11 a.m. Wednesday 177 Liberals had been declared elected and 38 National Government candidates.

W. E. Harris Wins Grey-Bruce Contest

W. E. Harris of Markdale, Liberal candidate in Grey-Bruce was elected as member of this riding by a majority of 869 over Karl D. Knechtel, while Miss Agnes Macphail, who has held the riding for the past 18 years received 3990 votes. It was seen on Monday that with the heavy storm Miss Macphail's majority in the rural districts would be materially reduced, as it was almost impossible for her usual number of supporters to reach the polls to cast their votes. It was expected, however, on election afternoon that Miss Macphail would be defeated, but it was not thought by so great an amount. Harris gained on the vote given Dr. Hall in the last election while Knechtel was down on that given Dr. Campbell. Miss Macphail's vote was 3,235 lower than in 1935. Following is the vote in Grey-Bruce with some of the townships by polls:

For perhaps the first time in history Osprey Township gave a Liberal majority in the election on Tuesday. Telford was given a majority of 60, while Garfield Case was only able to secure 34 votes in the entire township. In fact Mr. Case received less than half the votes of the elected member and loses his deposit of $200 made to enter the election. Case had a majority of 27 in Thornbury, the only place to give him this notoriety. Following is the vote in North Grey:
