Mrs. D. Muir Passes

Death came quietly on Friday evening of last week to Mrs. Duncan Muir, at the home of her sister, Mrs. R. Stewart, in Flesherton, in her 83rd year. The late Mrs. Muir has been ill for some time, her condition becoming critical a couple of weeks ago.

The late Mrs. Stewart, whose maiden name was Maggie McPherson, was born in Storemont County in July, 1857, a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Hugh McPherson. She came to Artemesia township with her parents in 1876 and has been a constant resident of the township since that time. She was united in marriage to Mr. Duncan Muir and resided in the Ceylon district. Mr. Muir passed away twenty years ago. For the past five years she has been residing with her sister, Mrs. Stewart, in Flesherton.

Deceased had a very pleasing personality and was a real friend to all. She was highly regarded by a wide circle of friends.

She leaves to mourn two sisters, Annie (Mrs. Roddie Stewart) of Flesherton and Jessie (Mrs. Alex. Holley) of Sault Ste. Marie. Three brothers and two sisters predeceased her: Mary (Mrs. Don. McLeod) Donald, Sarah (Mrs. Blunden), Alex. and Hugh.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Muir took place on Monday afternoon with service at her late residence, conducted by Rev. F. Ashton of the Baptist church, who gave a most comforting message to the sorrowing sisters. Mrs. Alex. Henderson rendered beautifully "Going Down the Valley." Interment was made in the Flesherton mortuary chapel.

The pallbearers were: Messrs. Roy Piper, Roddie McLeod, Neilbert McKenzie, Henry Tucker, Allie Muir and Alex. Henderson.

Mr. Roddie McLeod and Mrs. Markham of Detroit were in attendance at the funeral.

SEELEY — KEYES

On Tuesday, March 12th, at 2.30 o'clock, a quiet but pretty wedding was solemized at the United Church parsonage in Singhampton by Rev. C. Fox, when Dorothy Beatrice Keyes eldest daughter of Mrs. and the late Mr. C. R. Keyes of Orangeville, was united in marriage to Earnest Joseph Seeley, only son of Joseph Seeley of Badjeros.

The bride was charmingly attired in a wine silk velvet gown, with wine accessories. She was attended by Miss Goldie Inglis of Badjeros, who wore a pale blue gown with navy accessories. The groom was attended by Mr. Chester Schwandt of Singhamton.

After the ceremony the bridal party returned to the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Inglis, Badjeros, where a dainty buffet luncheon was served.

The happy couple left for Toronto and other points. On their return they will reside on the groom's farm near Badjeros.
