Following the sharp advance in hog prices during the latter part of last week, the market was strong Monday, with most of the selling at 9c alive, with some hogs arriving, empty weights, to be sold on the rail-graded basis at 12c. The prospects for the balance of the week are favorable for a steady market.

DREAMS ARE SHORT

Dreams are of a very brief duration in spite of the fact they sometimes seem to the dreamer to extend over long periods—hours or even days, according to a writer in the Detroit News. A few seconds may be the actul time of a dream that seemed to carry the dreamer through long series of adventures. Dreams have no significence whatever in the foretelling of the future. They are merely impression pictures, in our relationship with existance.

No man would want his wife to act as do the other women to whom he makes eyes.

A Scotsman was offered $25 for his dog by an American, and $20 by an Englishman. He closed with the Englishman's offer. The American was naturally surprised.

"Why did you let him have it for less money?"

The Scot smiled dryly. "The dog couldna' swim back across the Atlantic."

A CHURCH MADE FROM ONE TREE

The town of Santa Rosa, California, has a wonderful little church that was built entirely from one redwood tree. This monster of the forest was 18 feet in diameter, and produced 78,000 feet of timber, in addition to the thousands of shingles with which the church was roofed. As matter of fact after the building—which seats two hundred people—had been completed, there were still sixty thousand roofing shingles left over. The tree was about eight hundred years old.—Montreal Standard.

Wareham W. A.

(By Wareham Correspondent)

Wareham W. A. met at the home of Mrs. Robt. Cole on Wednesday of last week. The roads were icy and the weather rainy, consequently the attendance was small. With the president, Mrs. Cole, in the chair the following matters were discussed: a garden party to be held on July 2, to be announced later; a donation to the Red Cross through the Dundalk branch. It is felt that access to the Flesherton and Feversham branches is too difficult for Wareham women, so, although Dundalk is not in the same district as Wareham, most of the members felt that co-operation with Dundalk was advisable.

In the matter of furniture and repairs for the parsonage, no definite decision was reached. The formation of a Women's Missionary Society was considered, but no action taken. Other matters were held over until a later meeting. A contribution to the devotional period was made by Mrs. Weatherall. The roll call at the next meeting is to answered by a quotation containing the word "seed" or "sowing." At the close of the meeting the "Kosy Klan," a group of girls under the leadership of Mrs. Wilfred Inkster, who have been busy making sleeping garments, gave an interesting exhibit of their finished garments. This project was sponsored by the Junior Institute.

Postlethwaite—"Are you the plastic surgeon who lifted my wife's face?"

Surgeon—"Yes, that's right."

Postlethwaite—"Well, you'll have to lift it again."

Surgeon—"But why?"

Postlethwaite—"Because it dropped when she received your bill."

Luck sometimes goes up in the elevator and then falls down the shaft.

Canned skunk is no sweeter than the ordinary kind, a dozen motorists found near here. One of the animals, foraging among a pile of tin cans, got his his head stuck in one of the cans and wandered on the highway causing a blockade of a dozen cars for more than an hour with motorsts afraid to approach or rush by. Finally the skunk wandered into a maple grove still sporting the can.

Last week a transient made the rounds of Mildmay business men, asking for a dime to buy a sandwich and a cup of coffee. Several citizens responded to his plea for help, says the Gazette, and he was later seen in the beverage room guzzling down one glass of beer after another. Some of the contributers felt like straddling him on a rail, and giving him a speedy ride out of town.
