The high school commencement on Friday evening was attended by a large crowd.

Rock Mills Ladies' Aid

Mrs. Sam Fisher held a quilting and tea on Tuesday, April 9, in aid of the talent money fund.

The monthly meeting of the Ladies' Aid was held at the home of Mrs. Sam Fisher on Wed., April 17, which was opened by singing "Down in The Valley." Mrs Croft read St. John 9th chapter, followed by prayer. The missionary part was opened with the roll acll, answered by a verse with the word "love," and missionary money paid, followed by a missionary reading by Mrs. Clark and a prayer by Mrs. Plantt. The minutes of the March meeting were read and collection taken amounting to 80c. At the close the hymn "Sun of My Soul," was sung. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Dick Clark on Wed., May 15th, in honor of "Mother." Lunch com. — sandwich, Mrs. Sam Fisher, Mrs. Wes Plantt; cake Mrs. B. Field, Mrs. A. Porteous.

A woman in court room said to the judge, "Are you the rebrobate judge?" "I am the probate judge." he replied. "Well," she said, "I'm in trouble. My husband was studying to be a minister at a local seminary when he died detested. He left me with three little infidels, and I wish to be appointed their executioner.

MAXWELL

Visitors with Mr. and Mrs. E. Buckingham for the week end were: Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Buckingham and Myrna of Stayner and Miss Shirley Buckingham of Millbrook high school.

Mr. and Mrs. Angus Morrison and family of Toronto visited Sunday with the former's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Wright visited in Toronto last week.

Mrs. J. Legatt represented the W. I. project training class at Markdale recently.

We are glad to report Mr. Ed. Nixon recovering from an attack of pneumonia.

LADY BANK

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Sanderson spent the week end with friends at Duncan.

Mr. and Mrs. Udell of Maxwell have taken up farming on the old farm and home of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Ottewell, at Providence church. We wish all our newcomers success.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Semple treated the young people of the neighborhood to a social evening of music and dancing on Friday evening last. All enjoyed a good time. Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Dobson also had a social evening, all helping to chase away the last dreary thought of this long and hard winter.

Miss A. Douglas of near Feversham accompanied Mrs. J. Graham to their new home near Barrie and will assist in the home for a time.

Dobson brothers moved Mr. Jack Graham's stock and implements to Barrie and Mr. Duncan Williams spent a few days at Barrie looking after them while Mr. Graham and family were completing the moving.

Mr. Mannie Dobson had the misfortune to lose a valuable horse Sunday night. It is an extra loss at this time, after a winter's feeding, when it is needed for the spring work.

We nearly forgot we had Easter this spring, it being so early and with mountains of snow at the time.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS

ALL PERSONS having claims or accounts against ALBERT STEVENS, late of the Township of Artemesia, who died on the Nineteenth day of December, 1939, are required to send full particulars thereof to the undersigned Solicitor to the Executors on or before the Twenty-fourth day of May, 1940. After which date the estate will be distributed amongst those entitled thereto, having regard only to those claims of which notice shall at that time have been received.

WAREHAM

Miss McCullough reports that a very interesting class of beginners has registered at the school since Easter. Leona Wilson, Evelyn Gallagher, Danny Mossop and Dorreen Buchton were among the number.

A correction—Last week we stated that Miss Hazel McMillan was in line for provincial honors in connection with the work being undertaken by girls in Ontario, under the Department of Agriculture's educational projects. The word "county" should have been used in place of the word "provincial."

A class of eleven under the leadership of Miss Doris Fisher, assisted by Miss A. McCullough met on Saturday in the church basement and started work on the new project "The Club Girl Entertains." It is expected that more will enter next Saturday, when they will meet at the home of Archie Fisher. All girls and young women are welcome. This undertaking is sponsored by the Junior Institute of Wareham.

Mr. Richard Davison, who makes his home with his son, William, celebrated his 84th birthday anniversary Monday, April 15. Mr. Davison is a real pioneer of the district; it is believed that he was the first white baby born here. At one time Mr. Davison was the correspondent for the Dundalk paper. Congratulations.

Bill Fisher is on sick leave at his home here for a few days.

Those who attended the service at the church on Sunday felt well rewarded for travelling through mud and snow. Dr. Mercer preached an excellent sermon from Nehemiah. Church service will not be held at Wareham next Sunday, but Sunday School will meet at the usual time, 2 o'clock p.m.

Wareham C.G.I.T. met in the church basement Saturday afternoon, with Jean Jackson presiding and Jean Lyons as secretary. The Scripture lesson was read by Jean Lyons and Helen Hargrave lead in prayer. Evelyn Leppard and Anne Fisher gave readings. It was decided to make a quilt, which has already been sold. The society will attend the C.G.I.T. rally in Markdale early in May.

A lot of wood has been buzzed since the snow has gone down off the poles.

The camping season has opened early this year, some of the girls are rushing the season. Perhaps they'll give us a taffy pull!

The Thompson family has suffered a severe attack of "La Grippe." We are glad to report them recovering.

PRICEVILLE

The W.M.S. and W. H. Societies were held on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Archie McLean with 23 ladies present. Miss Margaret Nichol presided and after the opening ceremonies Mrs. D. L. McArthur gave a splendid paper on "Fellowship and Service." Miss Margaret Nichol gave a reading "The Pedlar's Pack." It was decided to have a play to be given later. Mrs. Sutherland presided over the W.M.S. Mrs. Nichol gave a reading "The world has narrowed." Mrs. Sutherland read a chapter from the study book and the hymn "I Love to Tell The Story," was sung, followed by the Lord's Prayer. The May meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Henry Tucker. A delightful feaure for the afternoon was a birthday cake lighted with candles, in honor of Mrs. J. A. Nichol's birthday.

Mr. Frank McArthur had a very successful sale on Friday last.

Mr. Archie McArthur returned to his home after spending two weeks in Toronto.

Mrs. Minnie Beaton returned to Nobleton after spending three weeks at the home of Mrs. A. McLachlan.

Mr. Alex. Dobson, his mother and sister, Thelma, of Toronto spent the week end at Mr. A. B. McArthur's on the townline. Miss Margaret McArthur returned home with them for a fortnight's holiday.

Mr. Gordon McLean of Fort Quapelle, Sask., son of Mr. Hector McLean, has arrived home for a visit. At present he is visiting his sister, Mrs. C. Marshall, in Toronto. His many friends here are pleased to know that he is feeling better after his recent illness.

Friends of Miss Alma McLean are sorry to hear of her sudden illness. She is a patient in Western hospital, Toronto. Her mother left early Sunday morning. All wish Alma a speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan L. McArthur and Eleanor were recent visitors with friends at Hamilton.

Mr. Brett of Toronto occupied the pulpit in St. Andrew's church on Sunday.

The men are all busy shovelling snow this Monday morning on the north line. There is plenty of snow in the hills, but a few days of warm sun and wind should help to remove it.

The doctor has been in attendance on Miss Mina Wright, who has been advised to take treatment at a hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Williams and family and son-in-law, Gordon Fettes Henderson, visited Sunday at the home of the children's grandpa, W. W. Ramage.

Mr. H. B. McLean has since the passing of Mrs. McLean, been confined to his bed through illness.
