

Train of thought

In an effort to build public awareness around rail crossings, GO Transit Safety Officer Justin Alkhouri was onsite of the Main St. North crossing in Acton last Thursday as he handed out pamphlets to motorists while waiting for the GO train to pass through town.

Stellar service

TD Bank employees recently recognized three longtime employees who have collectively accumulated 106 years of service. From left, Anne Johnston (35 years), Lyn Bradley (41 years) and Kim Marchand (30 years) have been dealing with the public, and have handled countless thousands of dollars over that period. The reception, held at the TD Bank on Guelph Street, was attended by numerous former employees as well as current staff—an accumulation of about 351 years of service to TD.
