Wareham is the proud possessor of a community garden. Several years ago the church stood about a mile to the east of its present location and when the old building was razed, the stone foundation remained an eyesore. So, men and women filled the rectangle in with soil and planted shrubs and flowers. Once a year at the call of a special committee, those who can, meet at the garden and hold a spring clean-up. For the current year the work was done on Tuesday of last week, under the direction of Mrs. Wm. Wright. There is a small cemetery on the grounds and, although it is not kept in first class shape, is made more attractive by the garden.
