Live Stock Report

(By Dunn & Levack)

About 4,000 cattle arrived for Monday's market, which was the heaviest run for some time. Recent high prices had the effect of encouraging shipments of cattle off pasture and all classes sold fully a quarter lower than the close of last week. Calves held active and steady on Monday, while lambs brought 12 cents. The hog market was strong.

A few top prime weighty steers brought 9 cents, but the bulk of the good to choice were from 8.00 to 8.65, fair to good 7.50 to 8.00. Choice butcher cattle brought from 8.00 to 8.25, fair to good 7.25 to 8.00, common to medium 6.00 to 7.00. Choice baby beeves were steady at from 8.00 to 9.00, medium lower at from 7.00 to 7.50. Choice light heifery cows brought from 5.75 to 6.25, choice fat cows 5.50 to 5.75, fair to good 4.50 to 5.25, common to medium 4.00 to 4.50, canners and cutters 3.25 to 4.00. The bull trade was strong, heavy bolognas selling at 5.50, light kind 4.75 to 5.25.

Lambs opened lower, choice bringing 12 cents, and with increased runs, the market would still work lower during the balance of the week. Choice sheep were steady at from 4.00 to 5.00. Calves held strong at 9.00 to 9.50 for those of choice quality, good to choice 8.50 to 9.00, fair to good 7.50 to 8.50, common to medium 6.00 to 7.00, grassers 5 to 5.50.

A good order trade for live hogs raised the price to 8.35 live grade. Sows 3.75 to 4.00. Rail price was 11 cents. Prospects looked favorable for a steady market.

THE TRAGEDY OF THE LINE FENCE

Peterboro Examiner

Line fences bothered Dan and Joe, must be some twenty years ago, they argued quite a lot; Dan said the line fence wasn't straight, Joe chanted too his verse of hate, and they were rather hot.

For years they'd lived there side by side, and to each house there'd come a bride, good neighbors there for years; there was a short-cut path between, so much 'twas used 'twas never green, shared joys and griefs and fears.

That line fence seemed to get his goat, it stuck right square inside Dan's throat, he couldn't gee nor haw; and hot words flowed across his chin, he said that Joe was cheating him, and so he'd go to law.

Joe didn't know what Dan might do, and so he hired a lawyer too, the case went into court; they hired an engineer to come, to find just where the fence would run, he made a long report.

Dan got a bill and so did Joe, as much as all the wheat they'd grow, hey both began to groan; they read the judgment through and through, it said the only thing to do was leave the fence alone.

That path that used to be kept bare, you wouldn't know 'twas ever there, no feet on it so long; and Dan was stubborn in his way, for all he'd have to do or say—he knew that he was wrong.

When ladies wear their shoes with the toes cut out we often enough wondered how they get along on wet days.
