Purse Given to Proton Pastor and His Bride

(By Victoria Corners Corr.)

On Wednesday evening the Proton Station congregation of the United Church met with the congregation and Y.P.S. of Inistioge, at the home of our student minister, to welcome him and his bride to our locality, and especially to our homes. The evening was spent in social chat and a program of community singing, with addresses of welcome from Mr. Neil McCannell, the chairman, Rev. Shaw of Proton Station, Mrs. Knowles, teacher at Proton, and also a reading by John Duncan. An address was read by George Moore and a purse of money, on behalf of the two congregations, was presented by Mr. Abe Sherson.

To Mr. and Mrs. Patterson:

We are here ths evening to welcome a young couple who have taken that important step of joining forces and becoming partners in forming that wonderful God-given institution, the Home.

Mr. Paterson, though you have not been with us long, we already feel that you are our friend and that you are always interested in our joys and sorrows, and are always trying to help us spiritually and morally.

Mrs. Patterson, although we have known you only a few days, we do not feel that you are a stranger, you have proven yourself so friendly. One of our best wishes to you is, that your sojourn amongst us will be so pleasant that in the far distant years, wherever opportunity finds you, that you will always hold dear the memory of the little congregations of Inistioge and Proton Station, as it is here that you have started life's journey together. We ask you to accept this purse of money from the Proton congregation, Inistioge congregation and the Y.P.S.

Signed — A. Sherson, Earl Talbot, Elgin Moore, George Moore.

Mr. and Mrs. Patterson responded fittingly, telling us of their desire and willingness to be of help.

Local Softball Activities

The local club lost the first game of the season Monday evening when Berkeley took them into camp 9-1, but the locals promise revenge when the Berkeley boys return.

The next game will be played here Friday night, July 5, when Walters Falls will try and hit Normie Genoe, the Flesherton pitcher, which they were unable to do two weeks ago.

A week from tonight, Wed., July 10, Flesherton again plays here, the opposition is that great batting team, the Holland Centre Orioles.

Come out Friday night and watch the locals, as they are playing real ball this year and should deserve your support. Silver collection. The players are: Harold Best, Norm. Genoe, Ken Betts, Cecil McTavish, Bob Phillips, Douglas Cairns, Laurie Russell, Bob Dargavel, Leslie Seeley and Sherman Piper.

Hawkins—Pedlar

Bright sunshine greeted Saturday's bride, Retta Kathleen Pedlar, younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Pedlar, Eugenia, whose marriage to Herbert C. Hawkins, son of Mr. Melburn Hawkins and the late Mrs. Hawkins, Singhampton, took place at 3 o'clock at the manse at Heathcote. Her fomer pastor, Rev. S. Elliott, performed the ceremony.

The bride wore a street-length dress of blush rose triple sheer with white accessories. They were unattended.

Luncheon was served to about twenty relatives, at the home of the bride's parents. The room was beautifully decorated in pink and white streamers, and a profusion of garden flowers (same color) with the prettily decorated wedding cake, the table centre piece.

The bride donned a blue and white silk crepe dress with white flannel coat, and amid showers of confetti they left on a trip north. On their return Mr. and Mrs. Hawkins will reside on the groom's farm, Singhampton.
