When you haven't anything to put on the collection plate it always seems that the fellow who is passing the thing pauses a little longer than is necessary.

Be British and show that you have some of the courage for which the British people have been famous through the centuries.

Live Stock Report

(By Dunn & Levack)

Over 4000 cattle arrived for Monday's market a large percentage of which were stocker cattle, which sold a little easier,while good to choice butcher cattle were active and strong also baby beef sold higher. The cow trade was strong. Hogs advanced Lambs sold at 12 cents and the calf trade was strong. Hogs arvanced sharply to 8.75, being 35 cents higher than at the close of last week.

Choice weighty steers were easier at from 8.50 to 8.75, with some tops at 9.00. Choice butcher cattle were in demand at from 8.00 to 8.50, some tops at 8.75, fair to good 7.50 to 8.00. Choice baby beefs were from a quarter to a half higher, selling at from 9.50 to 10.00, fair to good 8.50 to 9.25. Cows were slow, choice light heifery kind at 4.75 to 6.00, choice fat cows 5.25 to 5.50, fair to good 4.75 to 5.25 common to medium 4.00 to 4.50, canners and cutters 3.00 to 4.00. Bulls sold strong, choice heavies and bolognas 5.50 to 5.75, light kind 4.75 to5.25.

Lambs were in strong demand, choice kind 12 cents, bucks 11 cents. Sheep were steady, choice 4.00 to 5.00, heavy kind 3.00 to 3.50, common 2.50 to 3.00. Calves opened strong due to a good export trade, choice 9.00 to 9.50, with an odd top at 10.00, fair to good 8.50 to 9.00, medium 7.00 to 8.00, common 5.50 to 6.50.

Hogs advanced sharply due to a good demand from the small wholesalers and outside trade, prices 35 cents higher, practically all the hogs offered, selling alive at 8.75, which is the highest prices made since the middle of April, but still below last years' sales when prices were higher tan the above price. alesmen are hopeful of still furthur advances and are doing their utmost to reach at least 9 cents.

Tourists should not be alarmed about the report that we have bears in this district. Truth is that not until the swimming season is well under way do any of our bares appear.

Funeral of Mrs. S. J. Arnott

The funeral of Mrs. Samuel J. Arnott was held at the family residence near Wareham on Friday, June 28th. Interment was made in the Maxwell Cemetery. In spite of heavy rains, a very large crowd attended,, friends being present from far and near.

Mrs. Arnott was the eldest daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Edward McCallum of the Fourth Line, Osprey, and before her marriage lived in Youngstown, N.Y., and Toronto for some time

To mourn the loss of a devoted wife and mother she leaves besides her husband, one son, Bruce, and two daughters, Nellie (Mrs. Cyril Baird of Toronto) and Marjorie, who teaches in Kapuskasing High School. There are also two grandchildren, Sheila and Ronald Baird, also three sisters: Margaret (Mrs. Inkster of Saskatchewan) Alice (Mrs. J. Stephen on the McCal. H. Guylum home place), and Bertha (Mrs. D. H. Guy of Toronto). Three brothers are deceased: Walter of Edmonton, Albert of Osprey, and Harry, who passed away in Regina two days after Mrs. Arnott..

Dr. Mercer, minister on the Maxwell circuit, preached a comforting sermon on the text, "I am come to bind up the broken hearted" Jesus, the supreme comforter before he went himself into the valley of loneliness, gave his followers assurance of the Divine presence. His words are a challenge to a sovereign faith in God, a light of hope to sorrowing men

The pall-beaers were:Arnott and Stanley Menzies, Wilfred Inkster, Hunter Arnott, Dr. Guy and John Stephen.

The flowers were:A pillow from the family and sprays from daughter Nellie and husband, Toronto; Henry Arnott, the Menzies family, Wareham congregation, brother Harry and wife, Mervyn Baird and Helen Spalding, Leamington; Mr. and Mrs. M. H. McArthur, Toronto; Lloyd Little, Mr. and Mrs. A. Sparks, Mr. and Mrs. Dan McEachine, Flesherton; Hinde and Dauch Sales Department, Toronto; brother Walter's family, Mr. and Mrs. Kingston, Toronto; the Seeley family, and Mrs. Garvey, Toronto.

The officer of the day stopped a mess orderly as he was carrying a soup kettle out of the kitchen "Here, you," he snapped, "give a taste of that!"

Obediently he was handed a ladle, and he tasted. "Great Scott, do you call that soup?" he roared.

"No, sir," responded the orderly meekly, "That's dishwater."

WHAT ABOUT TWO YEAR TERM?

If citizens desire municipal elections to be held annually after this year it is necessary that they intimate this to the Council. The council may decide to put the decision for the longer term up to the ratepayers. If they do not do this a petition from five per cent of the ratepayers obligates the Council to pass the by-law and submit the question at the election this year and no doubt many Councils will let the ratepayers decide on whatever plan they may desire. If Council does not submit a by-law, the 2-year term automatically becomes effective and the municipal bodies elected for 1941 carry on for a two-year term. If a vacancy occurs during the tenure of office, the remaining members of the Council or Board choose the person for the position.
