Live Stock Report

Cattle trade was fairly active after a slow opening on the Toronto live stock market Monday. Prices were firm on butcher cows and fed calves and about steady on other killers. Veal calves also were firm, while sheep and lambs stayed steady and hogs gained 40c to 50c. Cattle unsold at the close were estimated at 1,300 head.

Prices in the cattle section follow: Weighty steers 7.00 to 8.50, with one load at 8.75; butcher steers and heifers mostly 7.00 to 8.25, with a few at 8.35; fed calves strong at 9.00 to 10.25; butcher cows 4.25 to 5.50; bulls 4.25 to 5.50, and stockers 6.25 to 7.40.

Veal calves sold at 9.50 to 10.00 for choice, with common selling downward to 6.00. Grassers traded at 5.50 to 5.75.

Lambs sold at 10.00 to 10.50 for good ewes and wethers with bucks bringing 9.00 to 9.50. Culls sold at 8.50.

Sheep sold at 2.50 to 5.00.

Hogs sold at 8.65 off truck for bacons and 11.50 dressed weight.

The most needed invention to-day is the motor car brake that will get tight when the driver does.

In the course of an English lesson, the teacher wrote on the blackboard: "He was bent on seeing his old school.

"Now, children," she said, "I want you to study that sentence and then write it down in your own words."

One small boy obviously did some hard thinking . Then he proudly wrote: "The sight of the old school doubled him up."

Funeral of Mrs. Jas. Robinson Thursday

(By Victoria Corners Corr.)

After an illness of four days caused by a fall which broke her hip and resulted in a heart condition, there passed peacefully away on August 6th, one of Bethel's pioneer women, in the person of Mrs. Jas. Robinson, which occurred at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Milton Bannon.

Born in the county of Donegal, Ireland, eighty years ago, the late Mrs. Robinson came to Canada at the age of two years with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hannah, who settled at Mount Pleasant, about three miles north of Markdale. There she lived until, sixty years ago, she was married to Mr. James Robinson, who predeceased her in 1917. They settled in the Bethel district. All was then bush, save for a small clearing, but by diligent work the land was cleared, the soil tilled, buildings erected and a home made, in which all who knew them liked to visit. Here were born four children Maude (Mrs. Milton Bannon) of Victoria Corners, Arthur, who died in 1927, Emma, who also passed away in 1918, and John of Hamilton. There are also six grandchildren and three brothers, John Hannah of Markdale, Abe and Robert of Berkeley. After the death of her son, Arthur, she moved to the home of her daughter. Mrs. Robinson, a staunch member of Bethel church, was always ready to lend a helping hand. She was a great knitter and spent all her spare time since last September knitting for the soldiers.

The funeral service, held Thursday afternoon, Aug. 8th, at Bethel church, was conducted by the Rev. George R. Service of Hamilton.

The pallbearers were: Messrs. Wes Dever, Earl Ludlow, Jack McConnel, Herbert Corbett, Ernie Stinson and John Gowanlock.

Flower bearers were: Vern and Ernie Robinson, Elwyn, Morley and George McInnis, Jim, Jack and Fred Bannon.

The many beautiful flowers that surrounded the casket were from: pillow, the family; wreath, Dever Brothers; Thos. Bannon family; baskets, Bethel United church, Wm. Robinson family, Neighbors; sprays, Mr. and Mrs. John Hannah, Mr. and Mrs. Abe Hannah and family, Mrs. Arthur Robinson and Donald, Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Hutton and Mrs. McGeoch, Mrs. Bolen and family, Mr. and Mrs. I. Rogers and Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Rogers, Mrs. Robert Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Bradley, Johnston family, Alice and George Armstrong, Mrs. T. D. Crawford and Wm. Dever, Mr. Rodney Grey, Cost Department of main Westinghouse office, Cost Department of Westinghouse Works' Division, Westinghouse Rate Department.

Friends from a distance who attended the funeral were: Mrs. Jas. Agnew, Clarksburg; from Toronto: Thos. Walker, Mrs. Wm. Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Willoughy, Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Robinson, Mr. Geo. Tanner, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Robinson, Walter Corbett; Mr. and Mrs. Herb McInnis and family of Brighton, Mr. and Mrs. Art Jackson, Mrs. Armstrong, Mr. and Mrs. S. Woolner, Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Jackson, Mrs. Robt. Jackson and Arthur of Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. Teft Woods of Guelph, Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Bradley of Orangeville, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Reid, Mr. and Mrs. Wes Johnson and family of Fenwick.

The manager of an Aberdeen firm called the bookkeeper into his office.

"Macpherson," he said. "the accountant is leaving and I'm gaun tae gie you his job."

The young bookkeeper's face lit up with expectation.

"Thank you, Sir," he replied. "And what will my salary be now?"

The manager shook his head.

"The same as your getting, but ye'll ha'e a hat-peg to yersel now," he replied.
