

CAA honours local tow truck driver

A Halton Hills tow truck driver has been honoured by the CAA South Central Ontario's drivers and service providers awards program.

Terry Layton—who has worked at Fred's Towing in Milton for the past 40 years—was recognized as a silver award winner when the recipients were honoured at the CAA South Central Ontario's Network Professionals Conference earlier this month in Huntsville.

Described as extremely experienced and knowledgeable by his nominator, Layton has been a longtime supporter of the Milton Santa Claus Parade and Light-Up the Hills in Georgetown.

The awards focus on "excellence in service, leadership, knowledge, customer satisfaction and dedication to the community."
