Foresters Parade In Flesherton 2.50 P.M. Thursday

Thursday afternoon of this week the citizens of Flesherton and district will have the privilege of having a visit from the 1st Battalion of the Grey and Simcoe Foresters. The Foresters are on a tour of Grey and Simcoe counties and are travelling in 40 large army transports. They will come through Flesherton just before noon on Thursday and will go on to Markdale, where they will have their noon meal, following which they will parade through Markdale and then embuss on the transports and move on to Flesherton, where they will arvice at 2.50 p.m. They will march through Flesherton, commencing just north of the Boyne bridge, with music being supplied by the brass and bugle bands of the battalion. Following the parade they will again embuss and move on to Dundalk.

This will be an excellent opportunity for the residents of this county to see their battalion on parade, an event that has never taken place in the history of the county. Over 800 men of the battalion will be in the parade. It is expected that the pupils of both Flesherton schools will be at marekt square to welcome the men and any other district schools that wish to attend and lend their vocal support to the welcome will be accorded a position in the line, if information is given of their intention. We want to show the boys that this community can give them just as great a welcome as they will receive anywhere. Don't miss this opportunity of seeing our battalion on parade. You will never have the opportunity again.

The Foresters left Camp Borden Tuesday morning for their tour, visiting Barrie, Orillia, Midland and remained in Collingwood Tuesday night. The cavalcade then went on to Meaford on Wednesday and went through Owen Sound to Southampton and back to the county town for noon and an afternoon parade and where they will remain for the night. Thursday morning the Foresters visit Chesley, Hanover, Durham, and through Flesherton to Markdale, where the noon meal will be eaten, following which they will come to Flesherton. Speaking to Co. Rutherford, O. C. of the Foresters, over the phone Tuesday evening, The Advance was informed that the men were enjoying the trip immensely and everyone was in the best of spirits. Col Rutherford gave us the time when they would arrive in Flesherton.

Altogether, folk, give the Foresters, the greatest cheer they will receive on their trip.

Presentation Made To Osprey Soldier's Bride

Last Thursday evening over one hundred friends and neighbors assembled at the home of Mrs. Chas. Eagles, Gibraltar, in honor of her daughter, Mrs. Neil McKenzie (nee Beryl Eagles) who was recently married. A miscellaneous shower was the main interest of the evening when Mrs. McKenzie was the recipient of many beautiful gifts, also an address, which read as follows:

Dear Beryl,— We, your friends and neighbors, have gathered here this evening, hearing that you have engaged in the vast sea of matrimony, to wish you and your husband, Neil, our sincere congratulations.

We are sorry that Neil is absent, due to having answered his country's call, and has gone to help protect this fair Canada of ours, and we ask you, Beryl, to convey to him our very best wishes.

You, Beryl, have grown up amongst us and have always been ready and willing to help with the social life of our community. We, therefore, could not let you leave without spending a social evening with you.

As a token of our esteem we ask you to accept these gifts and with them our very best wishes for health and prosperity and many years of happy married life.

Signed on behalf of the community —Elizabeth Miller, Lorenda Eagles and John Holden.

Mrs. McKenzie made a reply of thanks on behalf of her husbzand who is on overseas service. Dancing then continued until the small hours of the morning.

Escaped From Paris Three Months on Way

Word was received on Friday last by Mrs. R. Whittaker of Ceylon that her son, Mr. Well. Whittaker, and Mrs. Whittaker, had arrived safely in New York after escaping from Paris, France, where they had been residing since the Great War when Mr. Whittaker served with the Canadian army in France. The information came from a daughter, Mrs. E. Neubauer, of Akron, Ohio, who received a telegram from her brother. The telegram only stated that the two had arrived at New York and whether or not their two children, a son and daughter, arrived with them is not known. The son was fighting with the French army until the collapse of the Republic in June. Mr. and Mrs. Whittaker escaped from Paris shortly before its collapse and made their way to Portugal, where they remained for some time until accommodation was found to bring them to this continent. They were three months attempting to reach America.

The family had not had any word since May, when Mr. Whittaker sent a cable stating that all was well and the news of their safe arrival was received with rejoicing by their many friends here.

The program, too, should be the best of the season.

Junior Red Cross

A branch of the Junior Red Cross Society was formed at Flesherton High School on Friday of last week, when the following officers were elected:

President—Lawrence Phillips.
Vice-President—Jean Duncan.
Treasurer—Laurie Sutherland.
Circulation Man.—Bernice Wright.
Program Com.—Melville Buchanan, Angus MacVicar and Earl Plester.

Throughout the world there are now over 19,000,000 members of the Junior Red Cross. Flesherton High School Junior Red Cross has now 70 members. By becoming a member each boy or girl accepted two obligations, which are (1) The obligation of keeping the rules of health, and (2) the obligation of helping others who may need help. The motto is "I serve."

The chief service activity of the Junior Red Cross during peacetime has been the help afforded to physically handicapped children through voluntary contributions to the Crippled Children's Fund. In addition, various activities have been carried on in the local community, such as promoting health in the home and community, preventing accidents, providing Christmas cheer and so on.

Since Canada declared war, more Canadian Juniors have been enrolled. They are endeavoring to assist in raising money to provide supplies for soldiers, in knitting and sewing and in every way possible to follow the motto "I Serve." It is hoped that the Flesherton Juniors will be able to serve as well as the Canadian Juniors elsewhere. The health activities of the J. R. C. will be carried on chiefly in the health class periods by special courses on prevention of accidents, elementary first aid and home nursing.

Meetings will be held at intervals throughout the school year, when the programs will consist of addresses on health, accident prevention and citizenship by special speakers and health plays.
