

Ray Johnson & Associates donate $25K

The Co-Operators Insurance Ray Johnson & Associates recently donated $25,000 towards the cost of a new Olympia ice-resurfacing machine for the arena expansion project in Halton Hills to the Stay at Home and Play Campaign. The Johnson family was among the businesses and community groups who were acknowledged for their contributions to the fundraising campaign at the recent grand opening of the twin rink expansion at the Mold-Masters SportsPlex. At the forefront of the photo, holding the cheque, are Carter and sister Ellie Johnson. In the back row are (from left): SHPC co-chair Bob Hooper, Halton Hills Arena Users' Group co-chair Steve Highfield, Mark Kent, Co-Operators Insurance district manager, Gen Stewart, her children Emmett and Rhysie Johnson, Ray Johnson, SHPC co-chair Finn Poulstrup. Photo by Mark Taylor

Firhoj leads Rebels

Dane Firhoj led the Georgetown District High School contingent at the Golden Horseshoe Athletic Conference championship recently at Copetown's Beverly Golf & Country Club, shooting a team-best 80 to finish three shots off the lead.

The Rebels placed fourth in the overall points total, with Callum Biehn (85), Mitch McLeod (91) and Ben Braun (99) contributing to the team score.

Team of the Week

U-8 boys Mustangs

The Georgetown Soccer Club's under-8 boys' Mustangs who play in the Peel-Halton Development League enjoyed a successful season in 2013, faring well while nurturing their skills at festivals in Bolton, Brampton, Mississauga, Oakville, Caledon and their own event at Cedarvale Park. The Mustangs were sponsored by Ray Chesher of HeyRay.ca and Eramosa Physiotherapy. Team members (front, from left) are: Ross Brown, Quinton Alfaro, Isaiah Mathew, Elias Barlas, Evan Ribic, Ben Fogt, Matthew Dobbyn. Middle row: Tristan Biley, Lucas Podoski, Nicholas Dunn, Jonathan Keeping, Maxim Off, Easton Gougeon, Ben Murray, Ethan Shannon. Back row: Coaches Ryan Gougeon, Jason Ferreira, John Ribic. Submitted photo
