High Commissioner Visits New Zealanders in R.A.F.

The High Commissoner for New Zealand, Mr. W. J. Jordan, talking to New Zealand pilots who are completing their training in England with the British Royal Air Force.

Fewer people on the land can produce more in this war than in the last. Machines can do the work of the hired man but the farmer must get a larger share of the cost to the consumer of what he produces in order to buy what he requires.

FLESHERTON Are SEMI-PRO CHAMPIONS

Flesherton won the McDougal trophy on Wednesday evening last. The score ended up 6-2. Heathcote was leading at the end of the first but Flesherton soon got hold of themselves and set out to win. The game was not a very exciting game to watch as there were too many offsides and too much rough playing. Roy Best of Flesherton's team was the star of the evening, getting 3 goals.

Heathcote—Goal, Shakes; defence, B. Watters, J. Green; Centre, Lougheed, wings, L. Woodhouse, A. Woodhouse, Bell; alternates, H. Woodhouse, D. Green, J. Gibson.

Flesherton—Goal, Banks; defence, McLean, H. Betts; centre, C. Johnston; wings, R. Best, H. Best; alternates, Marshall, McVicar, McMillan.

Refrees—G. Boyd and R. Phillips, of Flesherton.

MRS. CREVIER BURIED AT SINGHAMPTON ON FRIDAY

Mrs. Ann Crevier, one of the best known citizens of Singhampton, was buried Friday in Singhampton cemetery. She died Wednesday after a major operation had been performed in St. Michael's hospital, Toronto.

She was born 62 years ago in Belfast, Ireland, the daughter of Wm. Elliott, and at the age of six came to this country with her parents. They first settled at Hastings and 50 years ago went to Singhampton.

She is survived by a son, Elliott, at home, one daughter, Norma (Mrs. V. Pallister) of Toronto; and three sisters, Mrs. Carf, Mrs. Jenkins and Mrs. Burning all of Toronto.

The Germans have built a new line of defence near where the border of Russia-held territory crosses Poland. Yes, Moscow and Berlin understand each other so thoroughly.
