Polish Squadron in Britain's Air Force

One of the Hurrican Fighters used in the famous Polish Fighter Squadron of Britain's Doyal Air Force is seen being re-armed with thousands of rounds of ammunition by Polish ground staff.

The Squadron has shot down 126 German aircraft in six weeks and many of its pilots have been decorated.

Remember those funny little bonnets grandma used to wear? You don't have to remember them, because granddaughter is wearing them now.

So with the others. They had looked death in the face, had gone through indescribable horrors. But they weren't dismayed; not even downhearted.

Spirit such as this just can't be beaten.

Spring is just starting here, while in South America they are having their early days of fall.

LATE MARK MURPHY

Another one of Osprey's pioneers, Mr. Mark Murphy, passed away at his home on the eighth line, Osprey, on Saturday, March 8, in his eighty-third year. Although the deceased had not been in the best of health for over a year, his sudden death came as a shock to the community.

The late Mr. Murphy was born in Pickering and when quite young came with his parents to the Eighth Line, Osprey, where he has lived ever since. He was the only son of James Murphy and Catherine Holmes of Ireland and were among the early pioneers to wrest a living from the wilderness.

The late Mark Murphy was a very highly respected citizen, honest and industrious and well known throughout the community of which he has been a life-long resident.

He was of a kindly jovial disposition and enjoyed the companionship of his many friends and neighbours.

He was married to Bridget Agnes Farden of Glenelg. To them were born five children, Mamie (Mrs. Frank Brown) of Collingwood, James Elizabeth and John at home and Adeline of Toronto. He is survived by his widow and family, who mourn the loss of a faithful husband and loving father. His only sister, Mrs. James Burns, predeceased him by 25 years.

The funeral took place on Saturday morning to St. John's R.C. Church, Glenelg where requiem mass was said by Father Egam. Many were the spiratual offerings for the repose of his soul.

The pallbearers were: Messrs. Wm. O'Brien, Donald Stephens, Fred Hale, Walter Saigeon, Peter Somers and Thos. Bemrose. May his soul rest in peace.

CORRECTION

In the notice of presentation to two Old Durham Road soldiers last week we make a change as to those who made the presentation, as follows: Lloyd Vause and Don Meads made the presentation to Pte. Bob Meads and Farquhar McKinnon and Joe Williamson to Pte. Don Whyte.

Three airmen from Fingal were in a taxi when it jumped the ditch, broke off a power line pole, when through a wire fence and stopped in a farm field. After which the three got out unhurt, having made what they called a perfect three-point landing.
