Victory Loan Campaign

Flesherton, Artemesia and part of Osprey Township have been assigned a quota of $100,000. in the forthcoming Dominion Victory Loan 1941. This is this district's share of the Grey County total quota of $2,300,000. These figures have been set as minimum, and the local and county committees are confidently expecting they will be substantially exceeded. In the last Victory Loan that of 1919 — Grey County reached 160 per cent. of the objective. With the need for funds even greater than then, Grey County will do its share as in all previous efforts.

The Flesherton committee has been completed, the following taking part in the house to house canvas: J. A. Richards, H. W. Kernahan, George McTavish, Thomas Fisher. The local committee is expecting that Flesherton will go over the total in her usual style.

Grey County's $2,300,000 objective is made up as follows:

Chatsworth, Sullivan and Holland, $110,000; Hanover, Bentick and Normanby $235,000; Durham, Glenelg and Egremont $160,000; Meaford, St. Vincent and Euphrasia (part) $200,000; Thornbury, Clarksburg and Collingwood $125,000; Markdale and Euphrasia (part) $100,000; Flesherton, Artemesia and Osprey (part) $100,000; Dundalk, Proton and Osprey (part) $100,000 Keppel, Sarawak, Derby and Sydenham, $135,000; Owen Sound, $1,050,000.

Grey County's Total .... $2,300,000.
