Field Secretary W.C.T.U. Spoke to Village Groups

Miss Rosamond Duff, Toronto, Field Secretary of the Ontario Women's Christian Temperance Union, spent Tuesday and Wednesday of last week in Flesherton and visited both High and Public Schools, and gave very helpful talks to both. Wednesday afternoon she visited the W. I., which was held at the home of Mrs. Norman Stoddard, when about 15 members were present, and gave them a splendid talk on the evils of the liquor traffic. Her address was appreciated by all and the only wish was that more could not have been out to hear her. Thursday morning Miss Duff left for Shelburne. While here she was the guest of Mrs. H. Down.
