Feversham Over the Top for British War Victims' Fund

Residents of Osprey township recently went away over the top when they collected and sent $775 to the Toronto Telegram British War Victims' Fund. The sale list defied description, hundreds of articles going under the hammers wielded by Auctioneers Wm. Kaitting, Geo. E. Duncan and Walter Seeley. Shown above, top left, William Kaitting closes the sale of "Blitzer," a kid goat, held by the new owner, W. L. Taylor of Singhampton, former Warden of Grey County. Top right, Auctioneer Walter Seeley looks for a bid on a violin and bow. J. T. Davidson, lower left, made the first contribution to the sale. The men's committee, centre, (seated) Rev. R. F. Thompson and Rev. C. J. McNichol, and standing, left to right, Rev. D. L. Dinnick, the chairman, Reeve Morton Sayers, James Davidson, Deputy-Reeve Fred Hale, John and James Hudson. Lower right is Miss Marjorie Lepard, one of the workers who helped organize the sale. Any of the pictures of the above and the prints of the others taken that day may be seen at The Advance office and orders given at reasonable rates. They would all make good pictures for framing.

The present War Loan is an insurance premium, small enough in relation to the size of the policy we should take out for the protection of our very existence.

CREAM

If you were to comply with the wishes of our government, which we are obliged to do, especially during war-time, you would produce more cream, because dairy products are very essential to help feed the British.

You would sell your cream to your nearest creamery, thereby eliminating waste of fuel and labor, which are so important at the present time. Hence by eliminating waste, you would help maintain a higher price for your own product.

Deliver your cream whenever possible and take advantage of the extra cent, or have our truck call and you will be satisfied with our efficient service.

MEAT STORAGE

Many patrons have taken advantage of our meat storage service. All are satisfied. It means a great saving and convenience.

With the possibility of meat prices rising, many patrons are storing their meats now, thus guarding themselves against higher prices. We urge you to take advantage while there is still available storage space.
