OSPREY SUNDAY SCHOOLS HOLD THEIR CONVENTION

The annual meeting of Osprey Sunday School Association was held in Maple Grove Baptist church on June 17, and after the opening exercises the president introduced the speaker, Rev. Stephen J. Mathers of Toronto. Rev. Mathers gave an excellent talk on "How to prepare next Sunday's lesson." He stressed the following points:

(a) By studying the lessons of the whole quarter to find the unity of the lessons.

(b) To prepare the lesson two weeks in advance, so that you can stress any thought you want that is carried on to next Sunday's lesson.

(c) Make sure the lesson you are teaching deals with the problems of the boys and girls in your class.

The secrtary's report was read and adopted. The roll call showed the following Sunday Schools represented Maple Grove Baptist, Rob Roy United, Singhampton Union, Gospel Workers' of Feversham, Salvation Army of Feversham, Maxwell United, Wareham United, McIntyre United, Badjeros United, Mount Pleasant Mennonite and Madill's United.

Rev. McNichol of Feversham advanced the idea that the ministers in Osprey should get together to plan for the teaching of religious education in the schools of the township, as authorized by the Department of Education. The convention was firmly behind this.

A duet was given by Mrs. H. Fenwick and Mr. D. Dinnick.

Two minute speeches were given by the following about his or her Sunday School: Harry Wright, Wareham; Mrs. E. Hawton, Feversham Salvation Army; Myrtle Wright, Feversham Gospel Workers; Susan Scutt, Badjeros; Mabel Ross, Maxwell; Mr. Dinnick, Maple Grove; Mrs. Goldsmith, Singhampton; Mrs. G. McDonald, McIntyre; Rev. Wellerman, Madill's; Rev. Pike, Rob Roy, who added a word of cheer for all Sunday School workers.

A demonstration on "Teaching a Primary Class," was conducted by Mrs. W. Inkster of Wareham. She stressed the aims of the primary teacher in teaching children to love God, reverence the church and gain knowledge of the Bible. Mrs. Inkster's topic for her lesson was "Jesus of Nazareth went about doing good." She used all kinds of simple helps to illustrate the lesson.

The conference remarks were made by Rev. Mathers. He commended Mrs. Inkster on her excellent demonstration and the simplicity of her equipment to get results in her teaching. Various discussions followed.

The evening service opened with a song service by Mr. Dinnick, The Vice-President, Mr. Wm. Priddle, took charge of the service. Rev. and Mrs. Pike rendered a musical selection and the devotion was conducted by Badjeros Sunday School. Miss Evelyn Hannon read the Scripture, and Mrs. Hannon gave an excellent talk. Officers were installed in their new offices. Rev. Stephen I. Mathers gave an excellent demonstration on how to teach 'teen age class. He had as his class the Badjeros C.G.I.T. and his topic was "Honesty." Everyone was just as interested as the girls were. The Badjeros C.G.I.T. sang and the offering was taken.

Rev. Mathers gave an address on "Better Christian Teaching" for a better world."

If you were to comply with the wishes of our government, which we are obliged to do, especially during war-time, you would produce more cream, because dairy products are very essential to help feed the British.

You would sell your cream to your nearest creamery, thereby eliminating waste of fuel and labor, which are so important at the present time. Hence by eliminating waste, you would help maintain a higher price for your own product.

Deliver your cream whenever possible and take advantage of the exta cent, or have our truck call and you will be satisfied with our efficient service.
