Priceville United Church

St. Columba W. A. and W. M. S. were hosts to Salem Ladies' Aid at their regular meeting held on Wed. Sept. 17 when nearly forty ladies met at the home of Mrs. James Oliver.

The W. A. under the capable leadership of Mrs. Wm. Meads, paid tribute to the boys of the Air Force. "My Friend has joined Air Force", and "The Unknown Soldier" were read by the president. Miss M. Brown read "A Housewife Salutes a Flier." The Air Force Anthem was sung and Rev. Bellsmith offered special prayer. Salem Society presented musical numbers and humorous readings.

Mrs. Ritchie presided over the W. M.S. meeting and Mrs. A. Muir took charge of the worship period. Mrs. Bellsmith told the story of a missionary, whose blindness had made his service to God more beautiful. Mrs. Ritchie gave a synopsis of the book "The United Church Carries On."

The National Anthem closed the meeting.

Anniversary services will be held on Sunday, Oct. 5th, when Rev. Bellsmith will have charge of both services. Special music is being arranged. Monday evening following a cold meat supper will be held when Corbetton Y. P. will present their play "Nora, Wake Up!"
