ROCK MILLS

We had our first snow fall Monday night, when it almost whitened the ground.

The wet weather has delayed the sawing at the mill and several days have been lost owing to the heavy rains and the yard becoming soft.

Mr. Fred Partridge of Toronto spent the week end at his parental home.

Mrs. Robt. McMullen is spending a couple of weeks with her daughter, Mrs. A. Fawcett, and family at Vandeleur.

Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Partridge were called to Guelph on Friday owing to the illness of their daughter, Edna, who underwent an operation. Mrs. Partridge remained with her.

Save Gas

To conserve gasoline is one of the slogans to-day and in order to do our part we are cutting down our route cream collection to once a week. So that the quality of your cream may not suffer, we are urging all cream producers to bring all the cream they can when making a trip to town.

May we also ask you to bring all your surplus cream cans or give them to the trucker, and thereby conserve metal for war purposes

POULTRY

We are paying Highest Possible Market Prices for live and dressed poultry. Get in touch with us before you sell.

Commencing in November, Saturday will be the only open night in the week.

Mr. Jack Spiers and his mother, and Kay Bannon and three nurse friends, who are training in Toronto General, visited at Milton Bannon's. Mrs. Spiers remained.

The ladies of the W. A. met at the home of Mrs. Elmo Stevens Thursday afternoon, the roll call being answered by one thing for which we are thankful. The sixteen members gave varied reasons for much thanksgiving, especially this year. It was children's day, there being nine present, also three visitors. The program committee, Mrs. Russell Patterson and Mrs. Chas. Moore, presented one of thanksgiving. Mrs. Copeland led in prayer and Mrs. R. Patterson read the Scripture lesson, which was followed with a reading by Mrs. Wilfred Gallagher. "A Prayer for the Kitchen," by Mrs. Walter Acheson, from one of Nellie McClung's stories, telling how a minister got inspiration for his Thanksgiving sermon through a letter from one of the boys overseas; Mrs. Jas. Batchelor "What Money Cannot Buy"; Mrs. Oscar Patterson told of the origin of Thanksgiving, not a physical feast, but one intended as spiritual; Viola Richardson, poem "Life's Rest"; Mrs. Herb Nichol, a poem "Where do you live: Grumble Corner or Thanksgiving Street?" The topic was of a missionary nature—a paper on our early Indians by Mrs. Chas. Moore, which was written by her mother some time ago, as she passed to her reward some 12 years ago. The business consisted of trying to make plans to make our church more comfortable this winter. A plan is under way for a bazaar of Christmas gifts.
