FRIENDS WITH EVERYBODY

Be friends with everybody. When you have friends you will know there is somebody who will stand by you. You know the old saying that if you have a single enemy you will find him everywhere. It doesn't pay to make enemies. Lead the life that will make you kindly and friendly to everyone about you and you will be surprised what a happy life you will live. — Winchester Press.

Conscince is a still small voice that tells us when we are about to be caught.

President Roosevelt is like the rest of us. After being in the White House for nine years, half a ton of junk was found in the cellar.

"Japan was the first nation to disturb world peace in the present era." —Chiang Kai-Shek.

American soldiers in Iceland staged a football game and British spectators were of the opinion that tank manoeuvers were being tried out.

One may give the Japs credit for courage, if nothing else. They talk of further wars, though the incident with China is still far from finished.

It wasn't so much that Beverley Baxter told us what we should do, but the old idea that we are colonials and that British M.P.'s have to come over and tell us things we are unable to decide for ourselves.

Save Gas

To conserve gasoline is one of the slogans to-day and in order to do our part we are cutting down our route cream collection to once a week. So that the quality of your cream may not suffer, we are urging all cream producers to bring all the cream they can when making a trip to town.

May we also ask you to bring all your surplus cream cans or give them to the trucker, and thereby conserve metal for war purposes

POULTRY

We are paying Highest Possible Market Prices for live and dressed poultry. Get in touch with us before you sell.

Commencing in November, Saturday will be the only open night in the week.
