Mr. and Mrs. Cairns entertained a group of friends and neighbors on Thursday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Snell, who are celebrating a wedding anniversary in the near future. Bridge and euchre were played prior to the presentation. An address was read by Mrs. F. Collinson and Mr. Jim McMullen presented Mrs. Snell with a lace table cloth, chenille bedspread and a sum of money for treats for Mr. Snell. Mrs. Snell was completely taken by surprise, but expressed her gratitude very ably. Lunch was served following the presentation and a very enjoyable evening spent.

The Institute's November meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Knox, when Mrs. McWilliam, the president, conducted the opening exercises. Following the scripture reading, the roll call was answered by "Something I'd like for Christmas." Considerable interest was displayed in connection with the hox which will soon be shipped to the Salvation Army for the Red Cross. A couple of tops are ready for quilting. Mrs. Knox contributed a pair of gloves. It was moved and seconded that each member donate 15 cents to the Institute, in place of the usual custom of a Christmas gift exchange. Mrs. McWilliam read an article on "Courage" and Mrs. Smellie conducted a contest, with Mrs. McWilliam winning the prize.

Mr. and Mrs. Pedlar of Detroit, Mich., spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Fisher.

A number of Ceylon people, together with seven cars of young people from the Mennonite congregations at Shrigley, Singhampton and Osprey, enjoyed a song service Sunday evening at the home of Mr. S. Hemphill. Rev. Dow Sargeant of Singhampton had charge of the service and gave a short address.

Mr. and Mrs. Emerson Wright and family of Feversham, Mr. Chas. Irish and Miss Isabel of Toronto and Mrs. Irish and Gertie of Flesherton were visitors Sunday at the home of Mr. S. Hemphill.
