SUNDAY SERVICES OF WORSHIP
JANUARY 4th, 1942
11 a.m. — Eugenia.
3.30 p.m. — Wareham.
7.30 p.m. — Maxwell.

Notes: There will be no service of worship at Mt. Zion next Sunday afternoon.

A Watchnight Service will be held in Eugenia church on New Year's Eve, Wednesday, Dec. 31, commencing at 11 p.m.

The annual congregational meeting, to dispose of the business of the year ending Dec. 31st, is set for Friday, Jan. 2nd, at 2 p.m., in the church at Wareham.

During the first month of the new year, Maxwell charge will aim at meeting in full the allotment requested of our four congregations for the missionary and benevolent work of our church for the year 1941. The amount assigned to this charge is $150 or approximately 2 CENTS per week per family. One month only, until January 31st, remains in which to complete and remit our allocation. This note is written with the hope that, as far as possible, every member and department of our congregation will co-operate in a practical way with the minister in this effort.
