VANDELEUR

The Farm Radio Forum met on Monday evening of last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Andy Fawcett with a good attendance. The topic wasc "Buying Together," and several articles on co-operation, including the Rochdale principles, which were drafted in England 100 years ago, were read by the secretary and chairman. An article on Credit Unions was also read. A list was made of all the co-operative endeavors of the community from the old "Grange" down and a lively discussion followed as to the reasons for their success or failure. The recreation convenor, Miss Dorothy Kelso, conducted an interesting period of contests and games. Mrs. W. Bowles acter as chairlady and Howard Graham as secretary.

Guardsman Victor Ford of Monteith and Mrs. Ford of Owen Sound, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie McMullen of Kimberley and Mr. and Mrs. C. Betts and Murray of Rock Mills were recent visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Andy Fawcett and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Harvey and family have moved from Swinton Park to their new home on the Barban farm.

Miss Marion Boland is spending a few weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Boland.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Davis and Mr. and Mrs. A. Fawcett visited friends in Kimberley.

A short time ago we mentioned that the Sunday School was now being conducted in the Public School on Friday afternoon, as has been the custom in this community for several years during the winter months. One reason for this is that we have service here only every two weeks and it saves heating the church for the one meeting. The attendance is also better at the Public School.

FEVERSHAM

Wedding bells are ringing.

February is the shortest month in the year, but seems to "blow" the most.

We welcome Mr. Ed. Pedlar and Mr. and Mrs. Stafford to our village.

Miss Jane Gould of Owen Sound spent a few days last week with friends in Feversham.

Mr. Jim Thomson, teller in the bank here, has accepted a position in a bank in Toronto.

Miss Phyllis Hudson spent the week end with Miss M. Duff.

We are glad to report Mr. Arnold Hutchinson improving after a very serious illness.

MAXWELL

The Woman's Association met at the home of Mrs. Jas. Winters on Feb. 5th, with a good attendance. The president, Mrs. Geo. Morrison, presided. Plans were made for the raising of money during the year. Mrs. Buckingham, as program convenor, had an interesting program of readings and contests. The Association decided to do without cake from the refreshments for the duration.

We are sorry to report that Rev. Dr. Mercer is confined to his bed. We hope for a complete recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Fenwick and family have moved to Red Wing. We wish him success in his new position.

Mr. Jas. Kerton, son of Mr. Chas. Kerton, has donned the uniform and is in training at Brantford.

EUGENIA

Owing to the stormy weather on Sunday morning, church service was not held.

We are sorry to report Rev. Dr. Mercer on the sick list, but hope he will soon be well again.

A number of members of the Beaver Valley Ski Club, Toronto, spent the week end at their club house in the valley, under the capable management of Mr. and Mrs. Randall.

Mr. Dorland Campbell has returned home from a visit with friends in Toronto.

Mr. F. R. Boland of Vandeleur, assessor, made his annual visit to the people in this community last week. We are all always pleased to meet this friendly gentleman and have a little chat with him.

Little Miss Gwennie Park has been laid up the past week with an injured knee, having twisted it while sleigh riding, but is able to be back to school again this week.

Mr. Chas. Park, who is working with the H.E.P.C. at Chatsworth, was home over the week end.

In publishing the report of the annual meeting we noticed a few errors. It was Mrs. Cameron and Mrs. Proctor who tendered the ote of thanks to the treasurer, Mrs. T. McKee, for her good work, and Mrs. McKee moved a vote of thanks to the Board of Stewards.

The Red Cross unit is having a quilting at the home of Mrs. Frank Cairns on Wednesday p.m. of this week instead of being at the home of Mrs. Well. Graham. The top for the last quilting was donated by Mrs. John Campbell and Mrs. Francis Genoe, and not by Mrs. F. Genoe alone, as stated in last issue.

Mrs. Jack Sloan is returning this week to her home at Wallard, Sask., after spending the past couple of months with her sister, Mrs. Alex. Cameron, and relatives in Toronto and St. Catharines.

Fathers used to strap their children—now the children keep their father strapped.
