FARMERS ARE SEEDING IN CAYLEY, ALTA., DISTRICT

The Advance received a letter on Monday from Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Thompson of Cayley, Alta., renewing their subscription, having kept in touch with their home district since they went West twenty-three years ago. The farmers are on the land at Cayley and seeding is now in full swing. Several have been sowing wheat for almost two weeks. If they get any moisture at the right time, there should be some good crops this year. Mr. Thompson has considerable land in summer fallow.

Deliver to Creameries

The Canadian Government is urging the farmers to produce more cream, and while is profitable on your part, it's also complyng with our country's need.

We urge you to deliver your cream to our creamery where at all possible; you gain delivered price over truck prices, and you are also helping to conserve cost of transportation, due to overlapping in territores.

At the present time we are asking you in helping us to conserve metal used in the making of cream cans.

The Government is enforcing strict regulations concerning cream cans and we are asking your kind co-operation by returning all unused cans and those used for other purposes than the hauling and storing of cream.
