CREAM

There is a big demand for butter and prospects for higher cream prices are in sight, so special care should be given to your milch cows this time of the year. We suggest:

Stabling during cool nights.
More grain feeding.

This will undoubtedly pay you well.

POULTRY

We are in the market to buy large quantities of both live and ressed poultry. Get in touch with us when you are ready to market your poultry.

Please avoid selling moulty birds, because they dress as "C" grade.

The Creamery will be closed from now on Wednesday evenings and Thursday afternoons.

Open Saturday nights.

Jim Says:

IT CAN BE DONE

Jim finds times hard. His standard of living has dropped. There are all these new taxes. Now there's another Victory Loan and Jim is expected to subscribe.

"Rock bottom!" was Jim's first thought. "We're on rock bottom. Just can't find the money!"

He's thought some more since. And he's decided it can be done. Jim says he doubts if Merritt lost muc time wondering if it could be done when he crossed that bridge at Dieppe.

M. Whittaker Passes

(By Ceylon Reporter)

This community was shocked to learn of the death on Saturday, Oct. 24th, of Miss Mildred Whittaker, youngest daughter of Mrs. R. Whittaker and the late Mr. Whittaker. The late Miss Whittaker was a very efficient public school teacher and also had a talent as an elocutionist and took an active part in music, singing many beautiful hymns at the various church services.

The funeral took place on Monday from the home of her brother, Mr. I. B. Whittaker. Rev. G. K. McMillan had charge of the service and gave a comforting message to the bereaved members of the family. Mrs. John McWilliam sang a favorite hymn of the deceased "God Will Take Care of You," accompanied by Mrs. P. Hunt.

The beautiful floral tributes were silent mesengers of sympathy, and there were many who gathered to pay their last respects to one who was highly respected in the community.

The late Miss Whittaker leaves to mourn her loss, her aged mother and three sisters Laura (Mrs. Newbauer) of Akron, Ohio; Meda (Mrs. Fred Sproat) Akron, Ohio; Emma (Mrs. Dr. West) Angus, Ont.; and five brothers, R. W. Whittaker, Montreal; E. J. Whittaker, Ladner, B.C.; S. F. Whittaker, Pleasant Dale, Sask.; W. L. Whittaker, Akron, Ohio, and I. B. Whittaker, at home.

The pallbearers were: Messrs. Brady Irwin, Bert Irwin, Allan Cameron, Neilburt McKenzie, Russell Purdy, and Arthur Fisher who were also the flower bearers.

The following from a distance attending the funeral were: Mr. Jas. Fletcher, Miss Agnes Macphail, Mr. Pell, Miss McDonald and Mrs. J. Beatty, all of Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. Roy Fletcher, Whitby; Mrs. Newbauer, Akron, Ohio, and R. W. Whittaker, Montreal.

Interment was made in the family plot in Flesherton Cemetery.

MR. AND MRS. JOHN STEWART HONORED BEFORE LEAVING

(By Ceylon Reporter)

Neighbors and friends of Mr. and Mrs. John Stewart assembled at their home on Friday to spend an evening with them, as they are retiring from active farm life and are moving to Flesherton shortly. They have spent all their married life on the present farm, which was also the boyhood home of Mr. Stewart.

Mrs. John Parker read an address, expressing the appreciation of the neighbors for the many kind deeds of Mr. and Mrs. Stewart during their sojourn there and expressing regret at their departure. Mr. Wm. Irwin and Mr. J. P. Setwart made the presentation of an electric floor lamp and bed 'amp. Both Mr. and Mrs. Stewart gave very appropriate replies and a pleasant evening was enjoyed by all We wish many happy years for them in their new home.

Cheese of any size or color may be made in Ontario and Qcebec owing to production and supply now being in a more favourable position.
