MAXWELL

The W.A. held their annual meeting at the home of Mrs. (Dr.) Mercer on Dec. 8th, but owing to the weather the attendance was small. Final arrangements were made for the bazaar which was to be held on Friday, Dec. 11th. The election of officers for the following year was held, as follows: President, Mrs. Jas. Winters; Vice-President, Mrs. Meredith; Secretary, Mrs. Jos. Wright; Treasurer, Mrs. Emerson Wright.

The W. A. bazaar was held Friday evening and the weather man kicked up another storm for it, but a few people bravely turned out and a very enjoyable evening was spent. The proceeds from the sale tables amounted to around $35.

Snow and more snow!

The Church of Scotland has given its Sessions power remove from the roll members who do not share the work and responsibilities of the church. If every church was to make up a list or "dead-head" members, it might provide amazing statistics.

CEYLON

Mr. Will Beaton was in Owen Sound one day the past week.

The Holdfast Club held their meeting at the home of Mrs. Melville Hogarth on Wednesday afternoon, Dec. 9th, with an attendance of about twenty members and visitors. The president, Mrs. Nichol, presided. Mrs. W. Beaton was to have given a report of the convention of the U.F.W.O., but owing to illness of a sister in Owen Sound, Mrs. Beaton was unable to be present. Mrs. Nichol gave a paper on the origin of bacon and eggs. A contest conducted by Mrs. Fisher, was won by Mrs. Kennedy.
