As a token of their appreciation of his services the patrons presented him with a substantial gift of money and the following address:

"It was with sad feelings that we learned of your ill-health and that you would not be with us for some time. We have enjoyed our associations with you, and appreciated the faithful and obliging service which you have given us in the past. We ask you to accept this gift as a token of the esteem in which you are held and we trust that your health may soon be fully restored so that you will be with us making your rounds again.

Home Threatened

Fire seriously damaged the residence occupied by Mr. Harold Fawcett, oposite McTavish's garage, when the floor and wall behind the cook stove had been completely eaten through by the flames and several items of wearing apparel also destroyed. The fire was discovered by a neighbour Mr. Arthur McDonald at about one a.m. when he noticed smoke escaping and with the assistance of his son-in-law, Norman Scarrow, used a hose at the bake shop to good effect while the fire truck was making its appearance. They used a few pails of water and soon had the fire out. Mr. and Mrs. Fawcett and family were in Owen Sound for the evening and did not arrive home for an hour or so after the fire was discovered.

A serious chimney fire occurred at the residence of Gordon Long Monday morning and despite the fact that the fire truck ran out of gas and there was no permit to purchase more gas, the blaze was extinguished without causing any damage.

The late Mrs. Jamieson is survived by her husband, William Jamieson, who is in very poor health and by her adopted daughter, Mrs. Austin Hill of Osprey. In addition her mother, Mrs. Isabella Hill, is still living and is in her eighty-seventh year. Two brothers, Louis and Robert, and a sister, Mrs. George Young, all of Maxwell, survive.

The late Mrs. Jamieson was beloved among the residents of the district who held her in very high esteem. She was a very active member of the Zion United Church and will be deeply missed by the members of that church.

The funeral was held on Friday afternoon, April 16, from the home of her brother, Mr. Robt. Hill, when her pastor, Rev. Dr. G. L. Mercer of Maxwell conducted the service. Interment was made in the chapel at Flesherton.

Death Of Mrs. G. O. Hill

The sudden passing of a well-loved wife and mother, Mrs. G. Oliver Hill, which occurred at her home, Sykes St., came as a grievous shock to her family and friends. Although not enjoying the best of health recently, Mrs. Hill was going about as usual and planning her customary housewifely activities for the spring and summer. A daughter of Mrs. Sewell and the late James Sewell, the deceased was born near Markdale and was in her 63rd year. She was married to her now sorrowing husband in 1900 and ten years later came to this locality where Mr. Hill had been engaged in farming until three years ago when they retired. For the later years they had resided on the Fourth Line of St. Vincent where Mrs. Hill's neighborly kindness and hospitality will long be remembered. Here was a home-loving nature and it is there that she will be most keenly missed. She was an attendant of Meaford United Church.

Surviving are eleven children: Lorne, Reginald, Harold, Wilbert, Earl, all of Meaford; Alvin of Hamilton and Kenneth of Toronto; Myrtle, Mrs. Wilfred Smith, of Owen Sound; Vera, Mrs. Wesley Gilmore, of Toronto; Ruby, Mrs. W. Fred Smith, of Barrie, and Miss Eleanor at home. Besides her mother, there are two brothers and four sisters living: Richard of Euphrasia, and J. P. Sewell of Flesherton; Mrs. Robert Gawley, Mrs. Geo. Cooper, Mrs. David Anderson and Mrs. Leslie Harper, all of Toronto.

The funeral service was held at her late residence with Rev. E. Baker, assisted by Rev. Wm. Howey officiating.

Interment was made at Lakeview Chapel. Six sons, Messrs. Lorne, Reginald, Harold, Earl, Alvin and Kenneth were the pallbearers and the three sons-in-law, six daughters-in-law, four grandchildren and two nephews carried the floral tributes. —Meaford Express.
